

We can find out much about God
through His World.

But the best way to seek God,
is through His Word!

God fills the world with His love.

God gives us food, excitement, things to make us happy, resources, things to help us be healthy, and protection.

2a

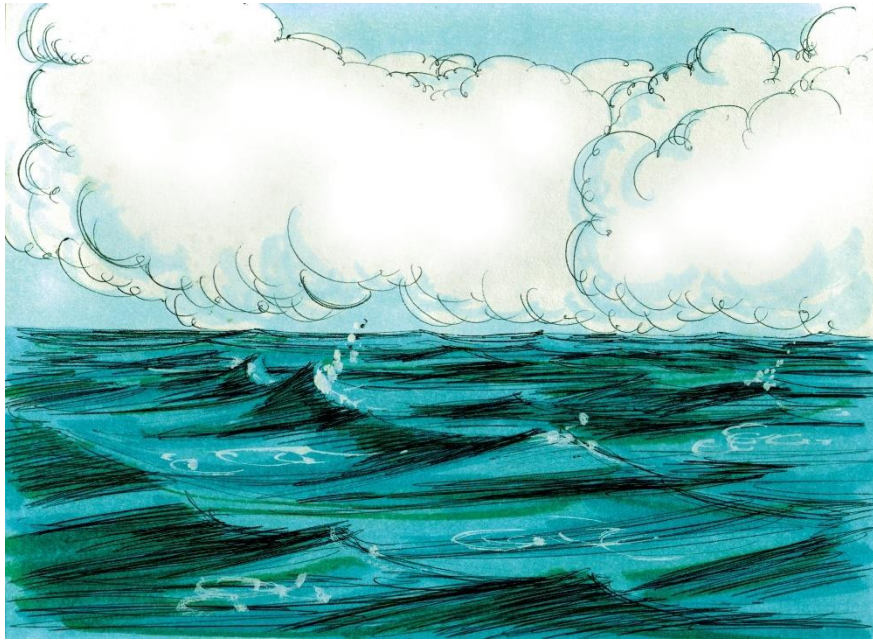

God is HOLY, compassionate, gracious, abounding in love, and slow to anger.

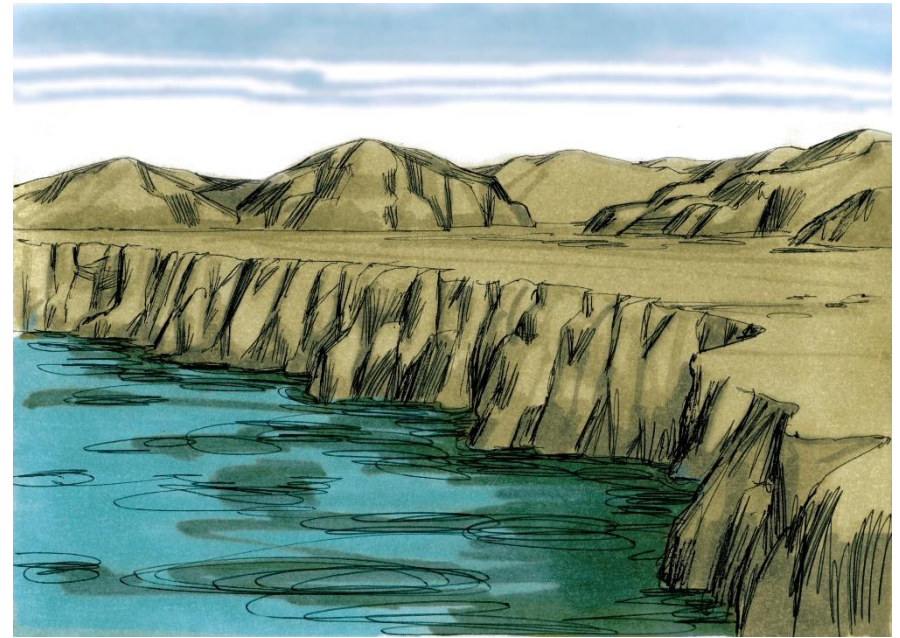

2b

Before God created the world, He had a plan where man could dwell with Him.

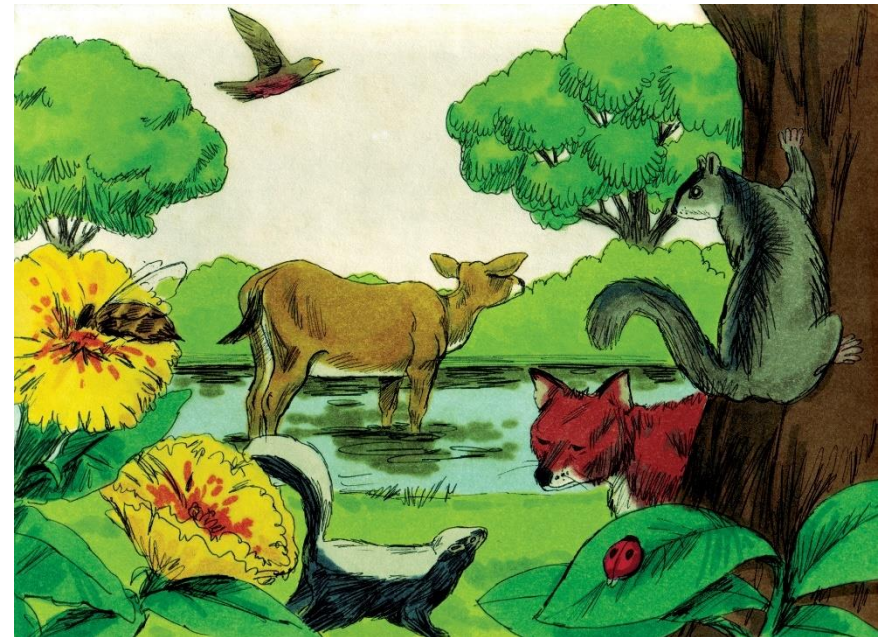

Day 2

Day 3

Day 4

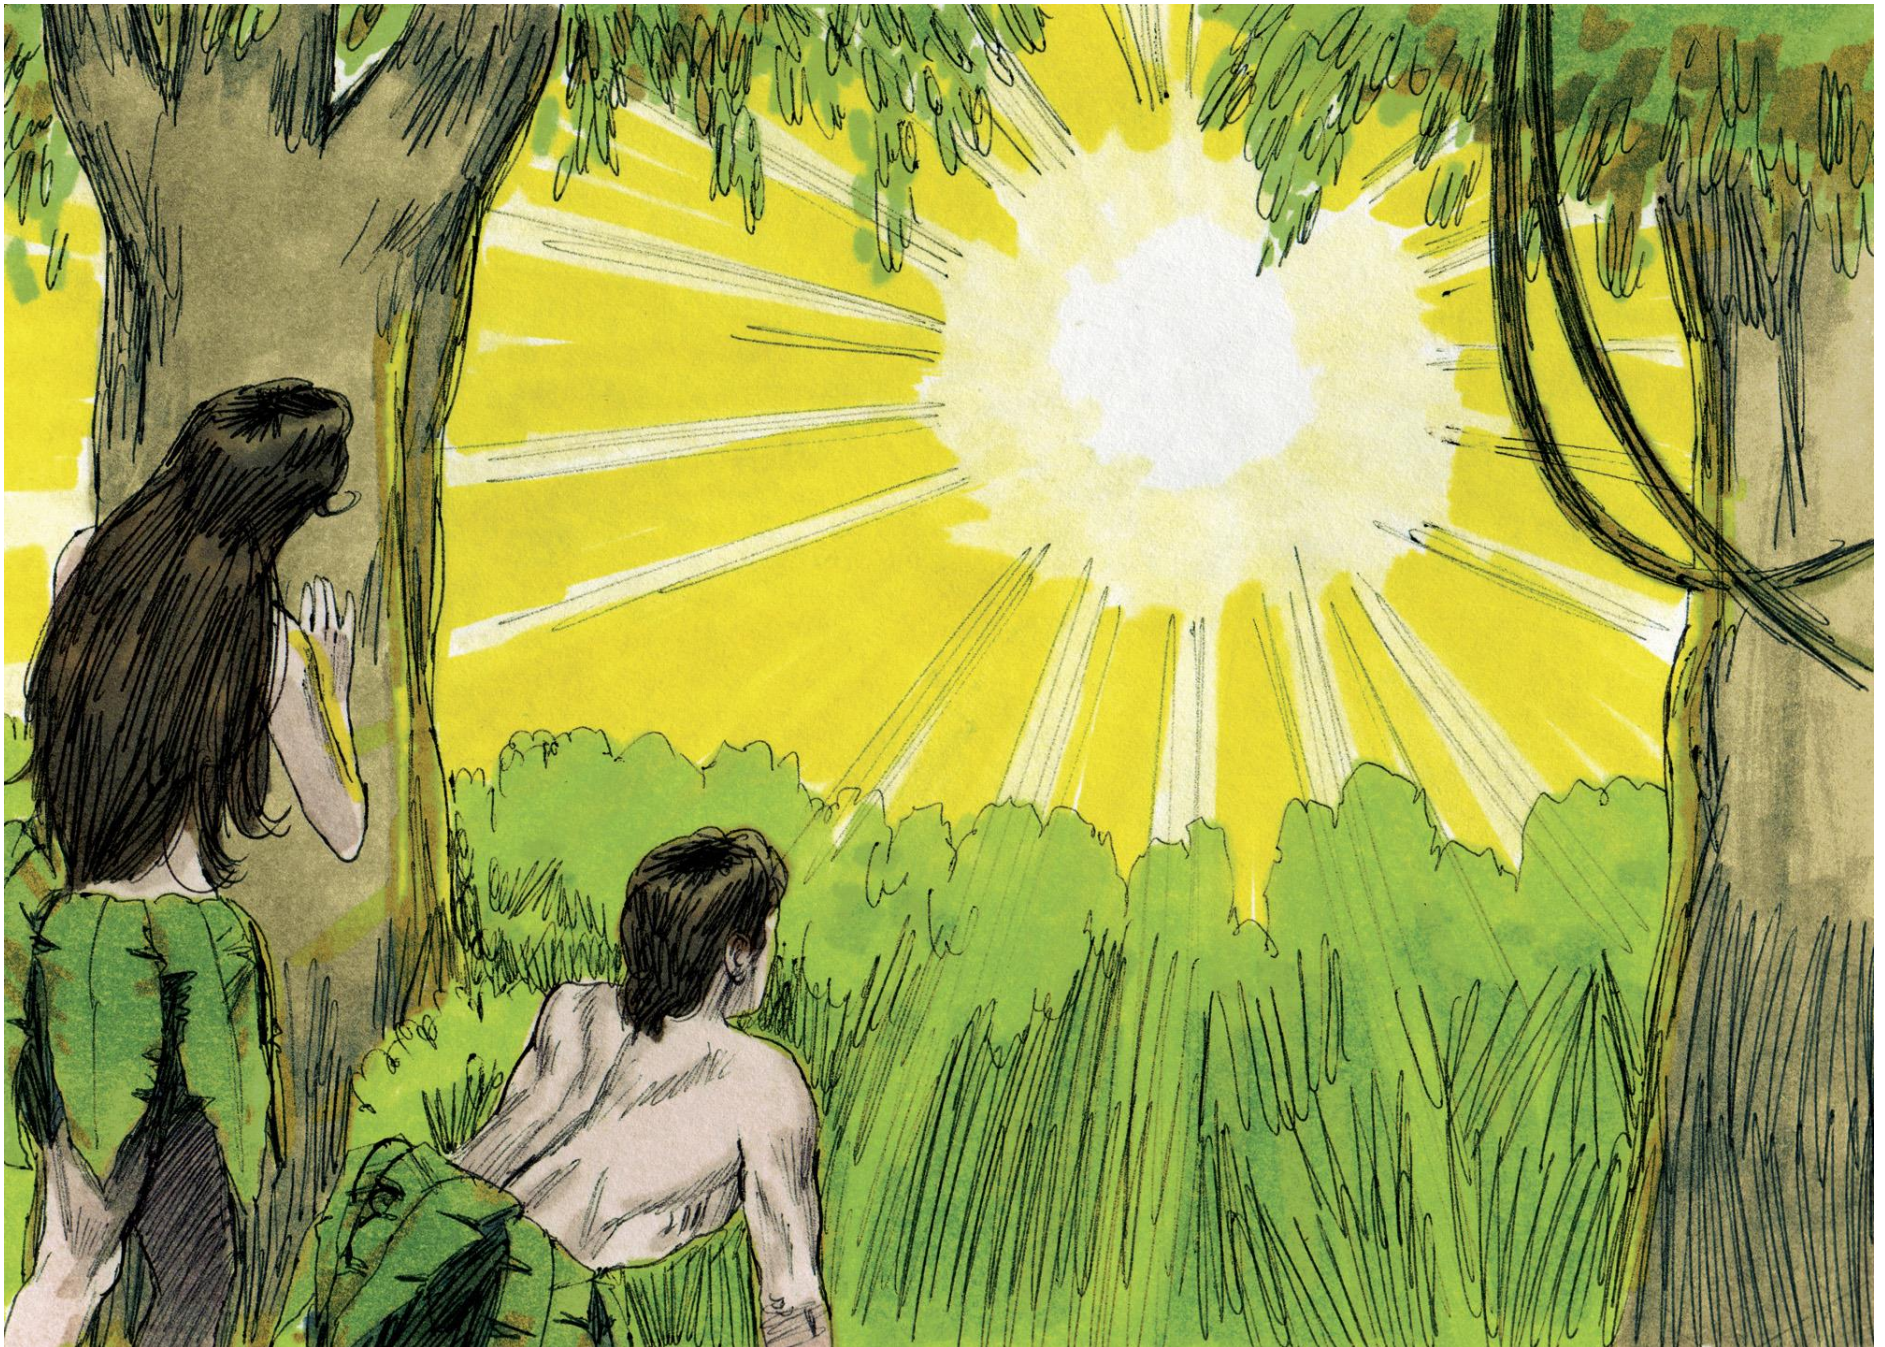

Day 6

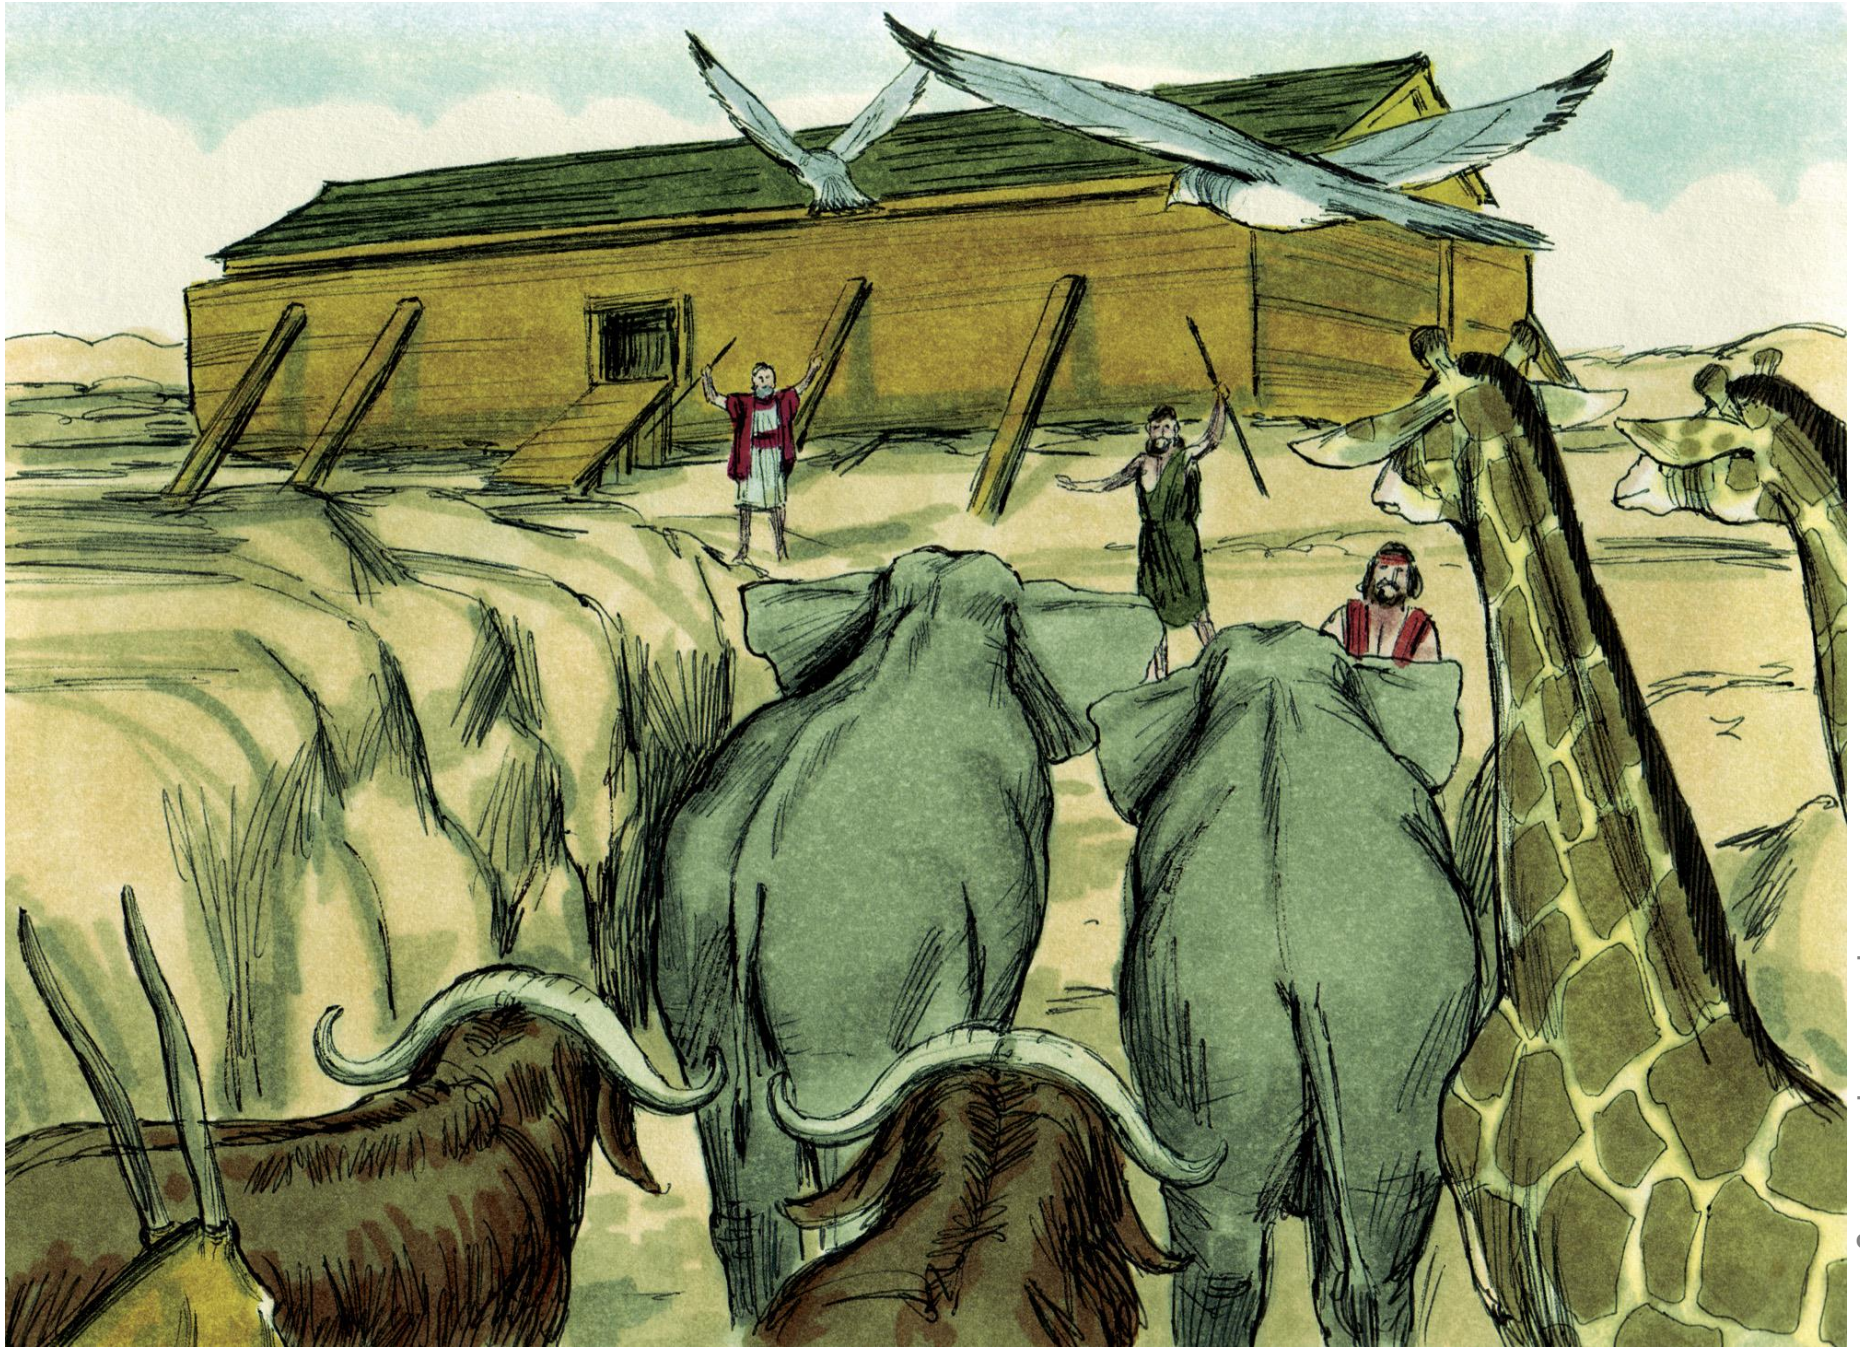

3b

God put the man into a deep sleep and fashioned a woman from one of his ribs.

5b

God established His covenant with every living creature that He would never again destroy the earth by flood. God placed a rainbow in the sky as the sign of the covenant.

<http://sweetpublishing.com>

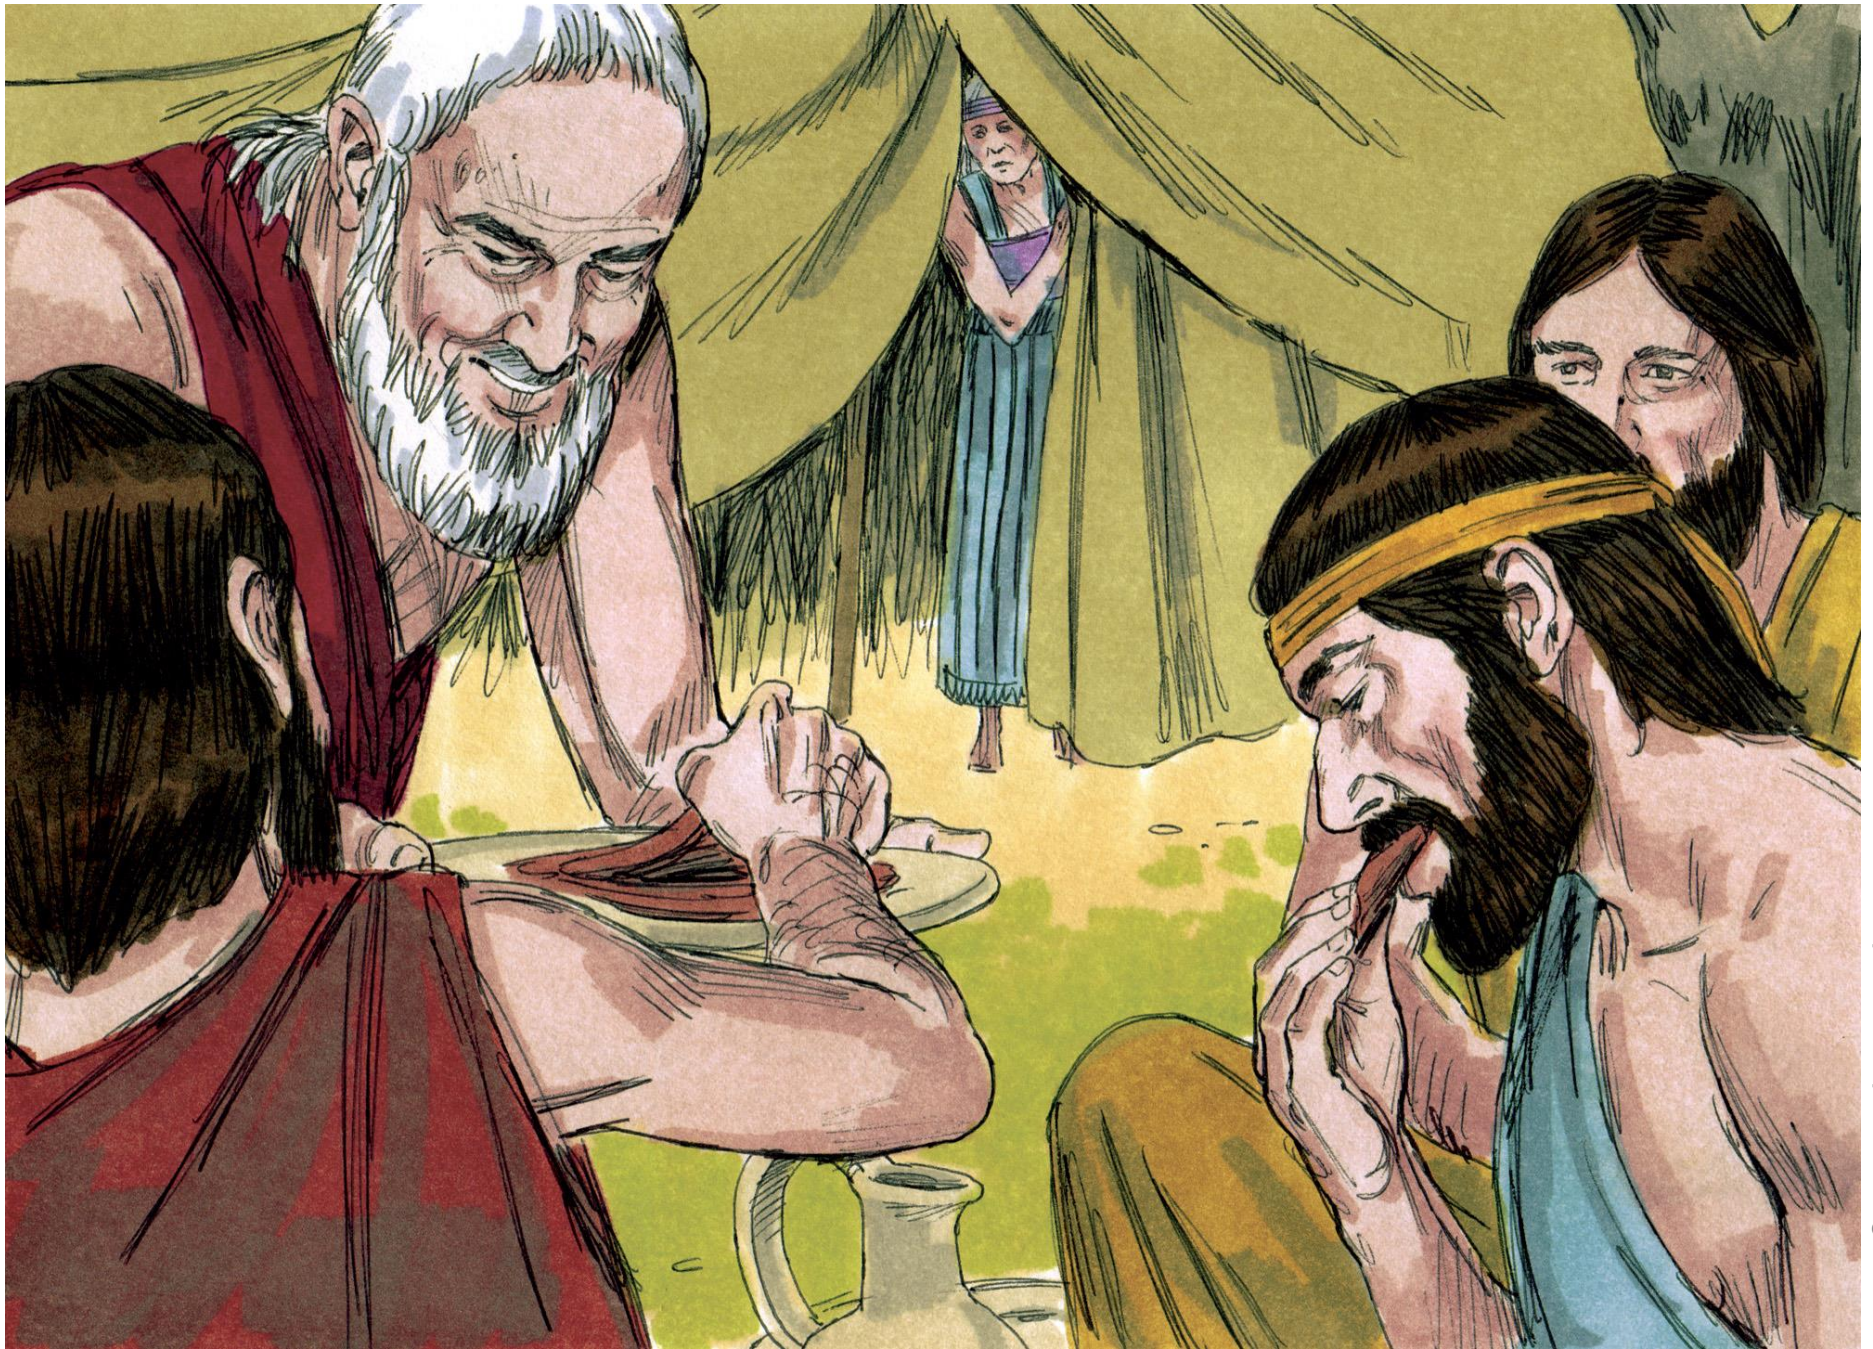

6a

God told Abram to leave the land of his father, and he obeyed. Abram took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot and his belongings and moved to the land of Canaan.

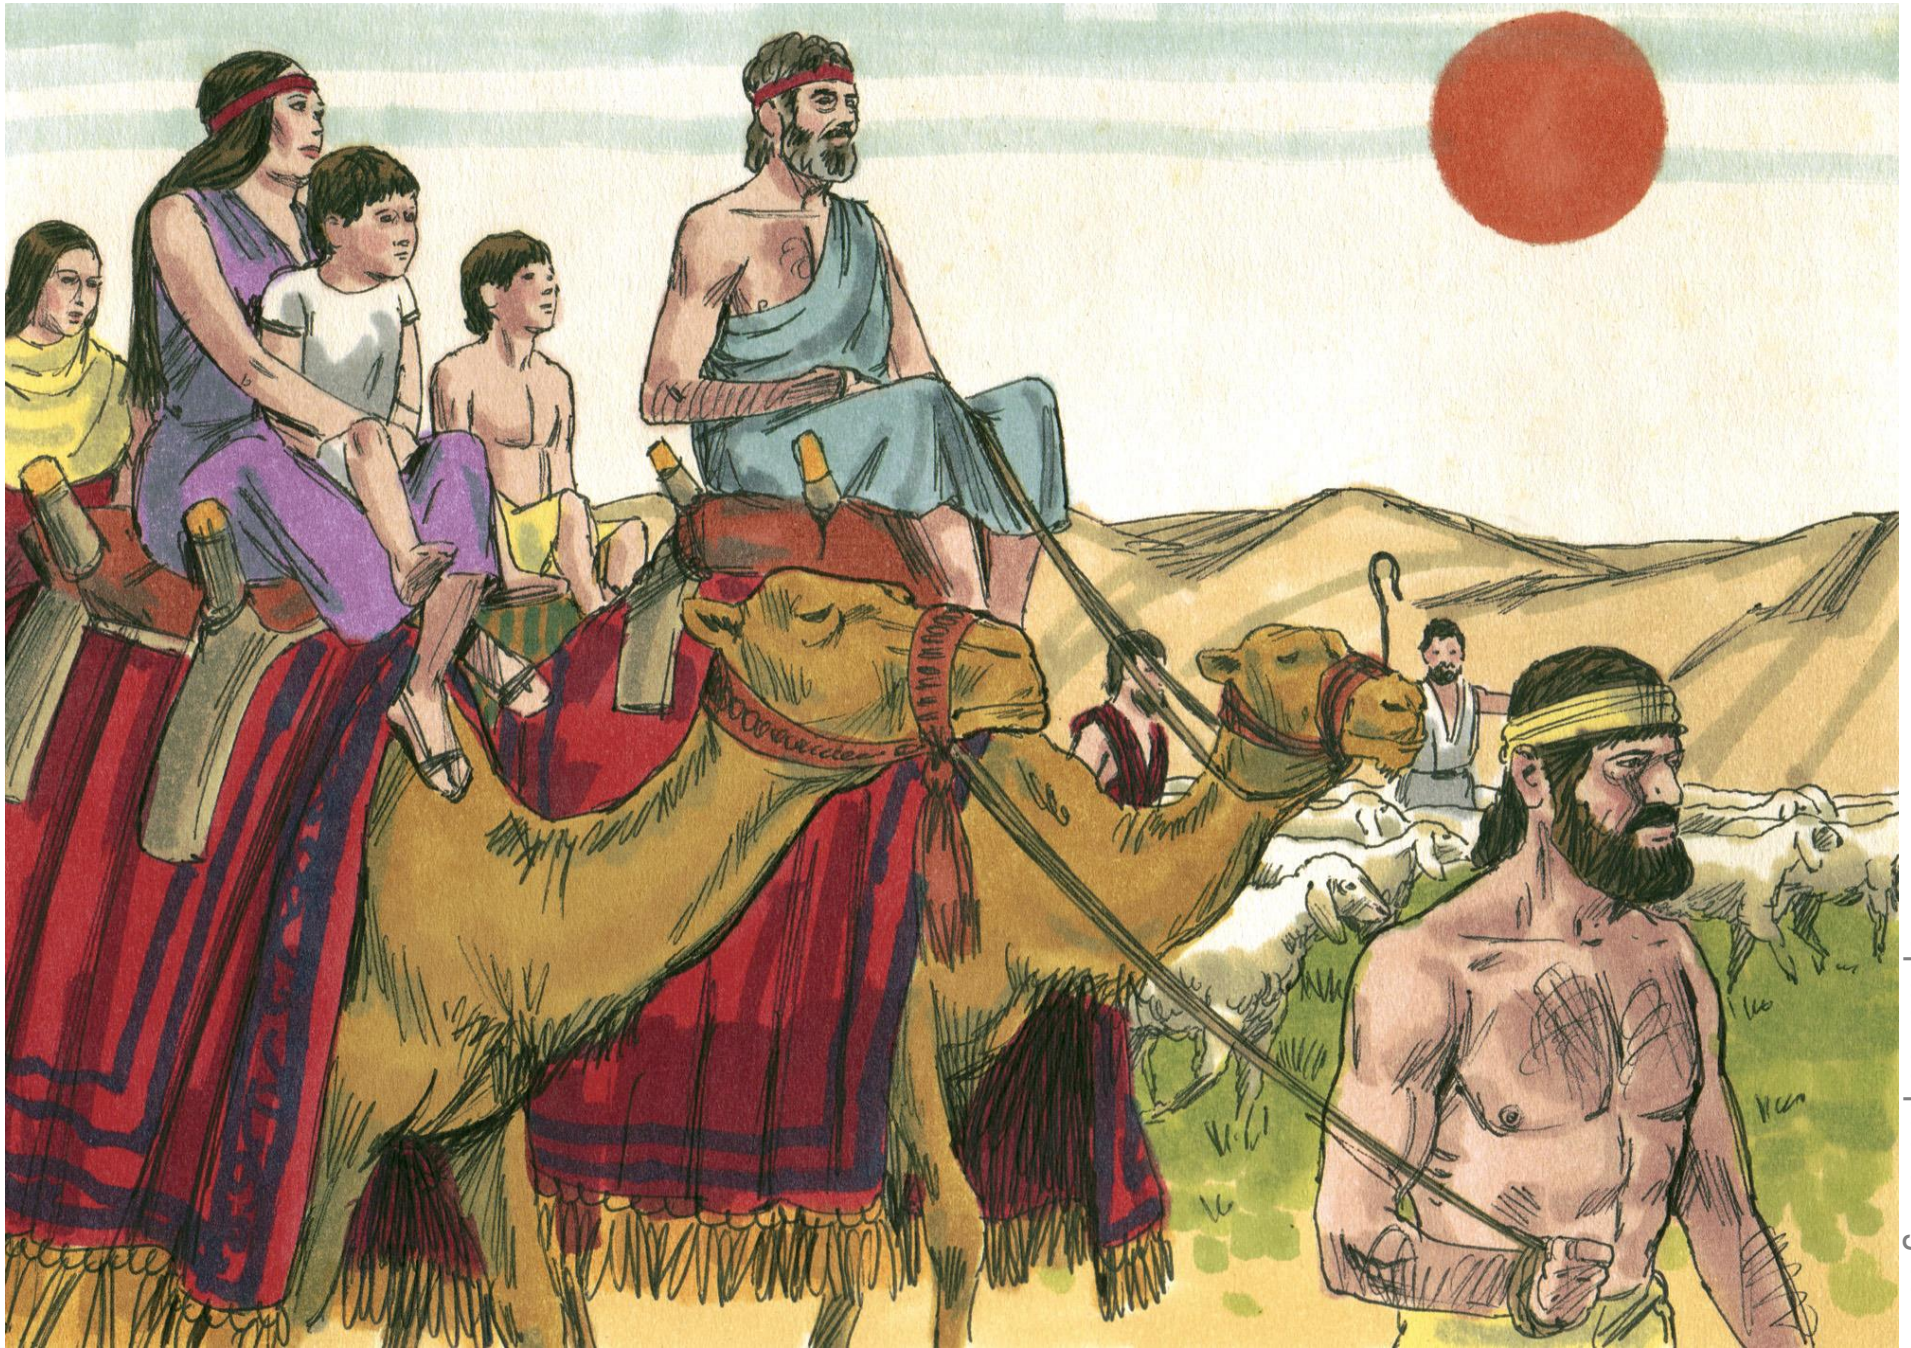

6b

“Look toward the heaven, and number the stars, if you are able to number them.
So shall your offspring be.”

7a The Lord told Abraham that Sarah would have a son about this time next year.

Pharaoh's daughter found a Hebrew baby floating in a basket on the water.
She named him Moses.

<http://sweetpublishing.com>

9b

God spoke to Moses from the burning bush.

Water to blood.

Frogs.

Livestock died.

Death of the firstborn.

<http://sweetpublishing.com>

11a

From Mt. Sinai, God spoke to the people the 10 Commandments.

<http://sweetpublishing.com>

11b

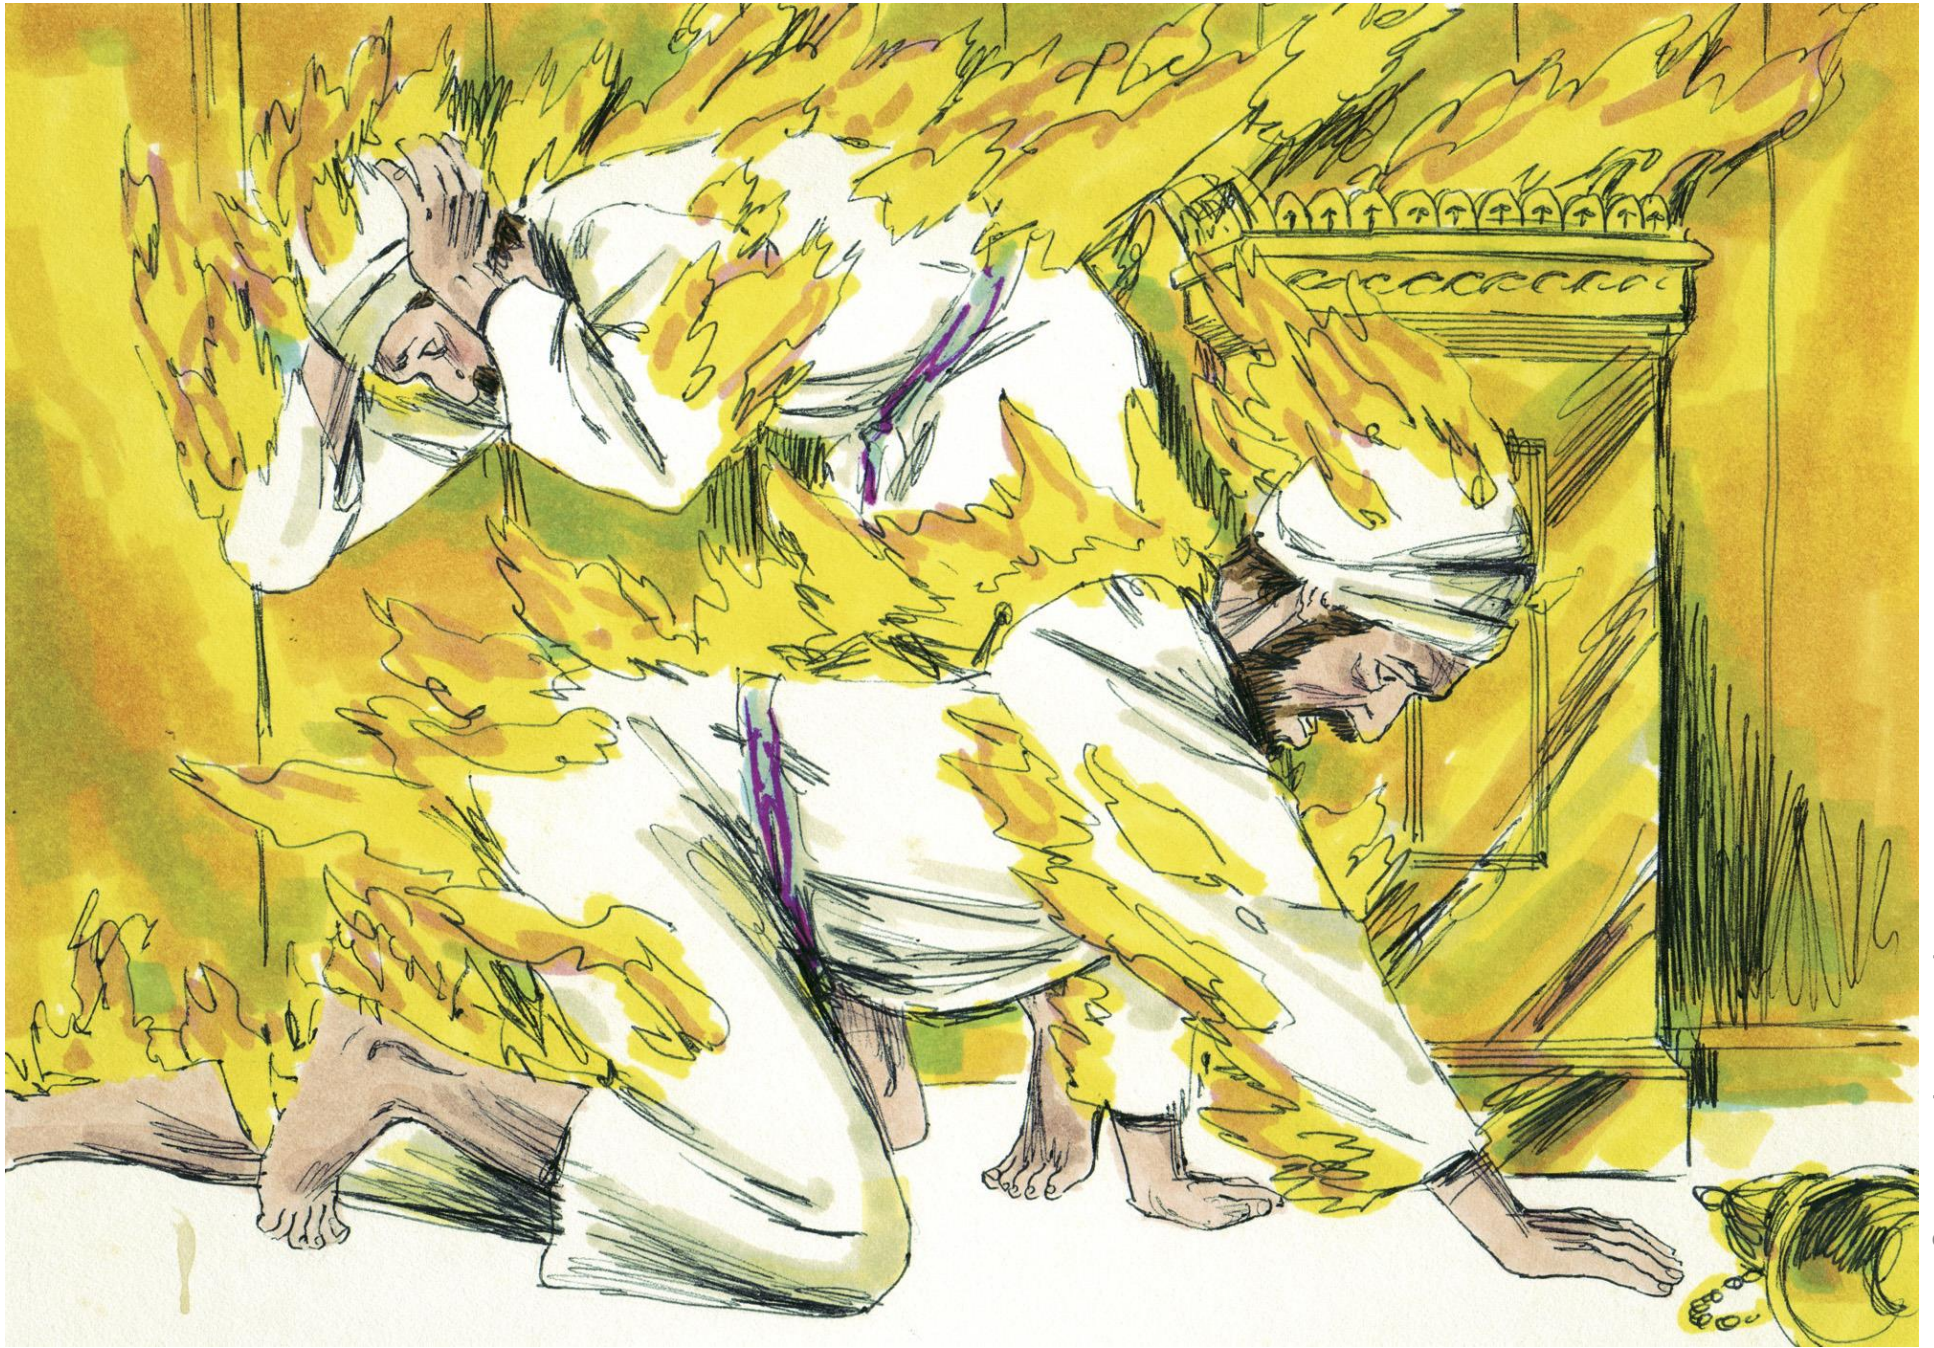

While Moses was on the mountaintop with God, the people were down making a golden calf.

<http://sweetpublishing.com>

12a

Moses consecrated Aaron as high priest, and Aaron's sons as priests.

12b

Nadab and Abihu offered unauthorized fire in their censers and fire came out before the Lord and consumed them.

Rahab hid the spies. She was to put a scarlet cord in the window, and they would deal kindly with her.

<http://sweetpublishing.com>

15b

God helped the Israelites in one of their battles by throwing down large hailstones.

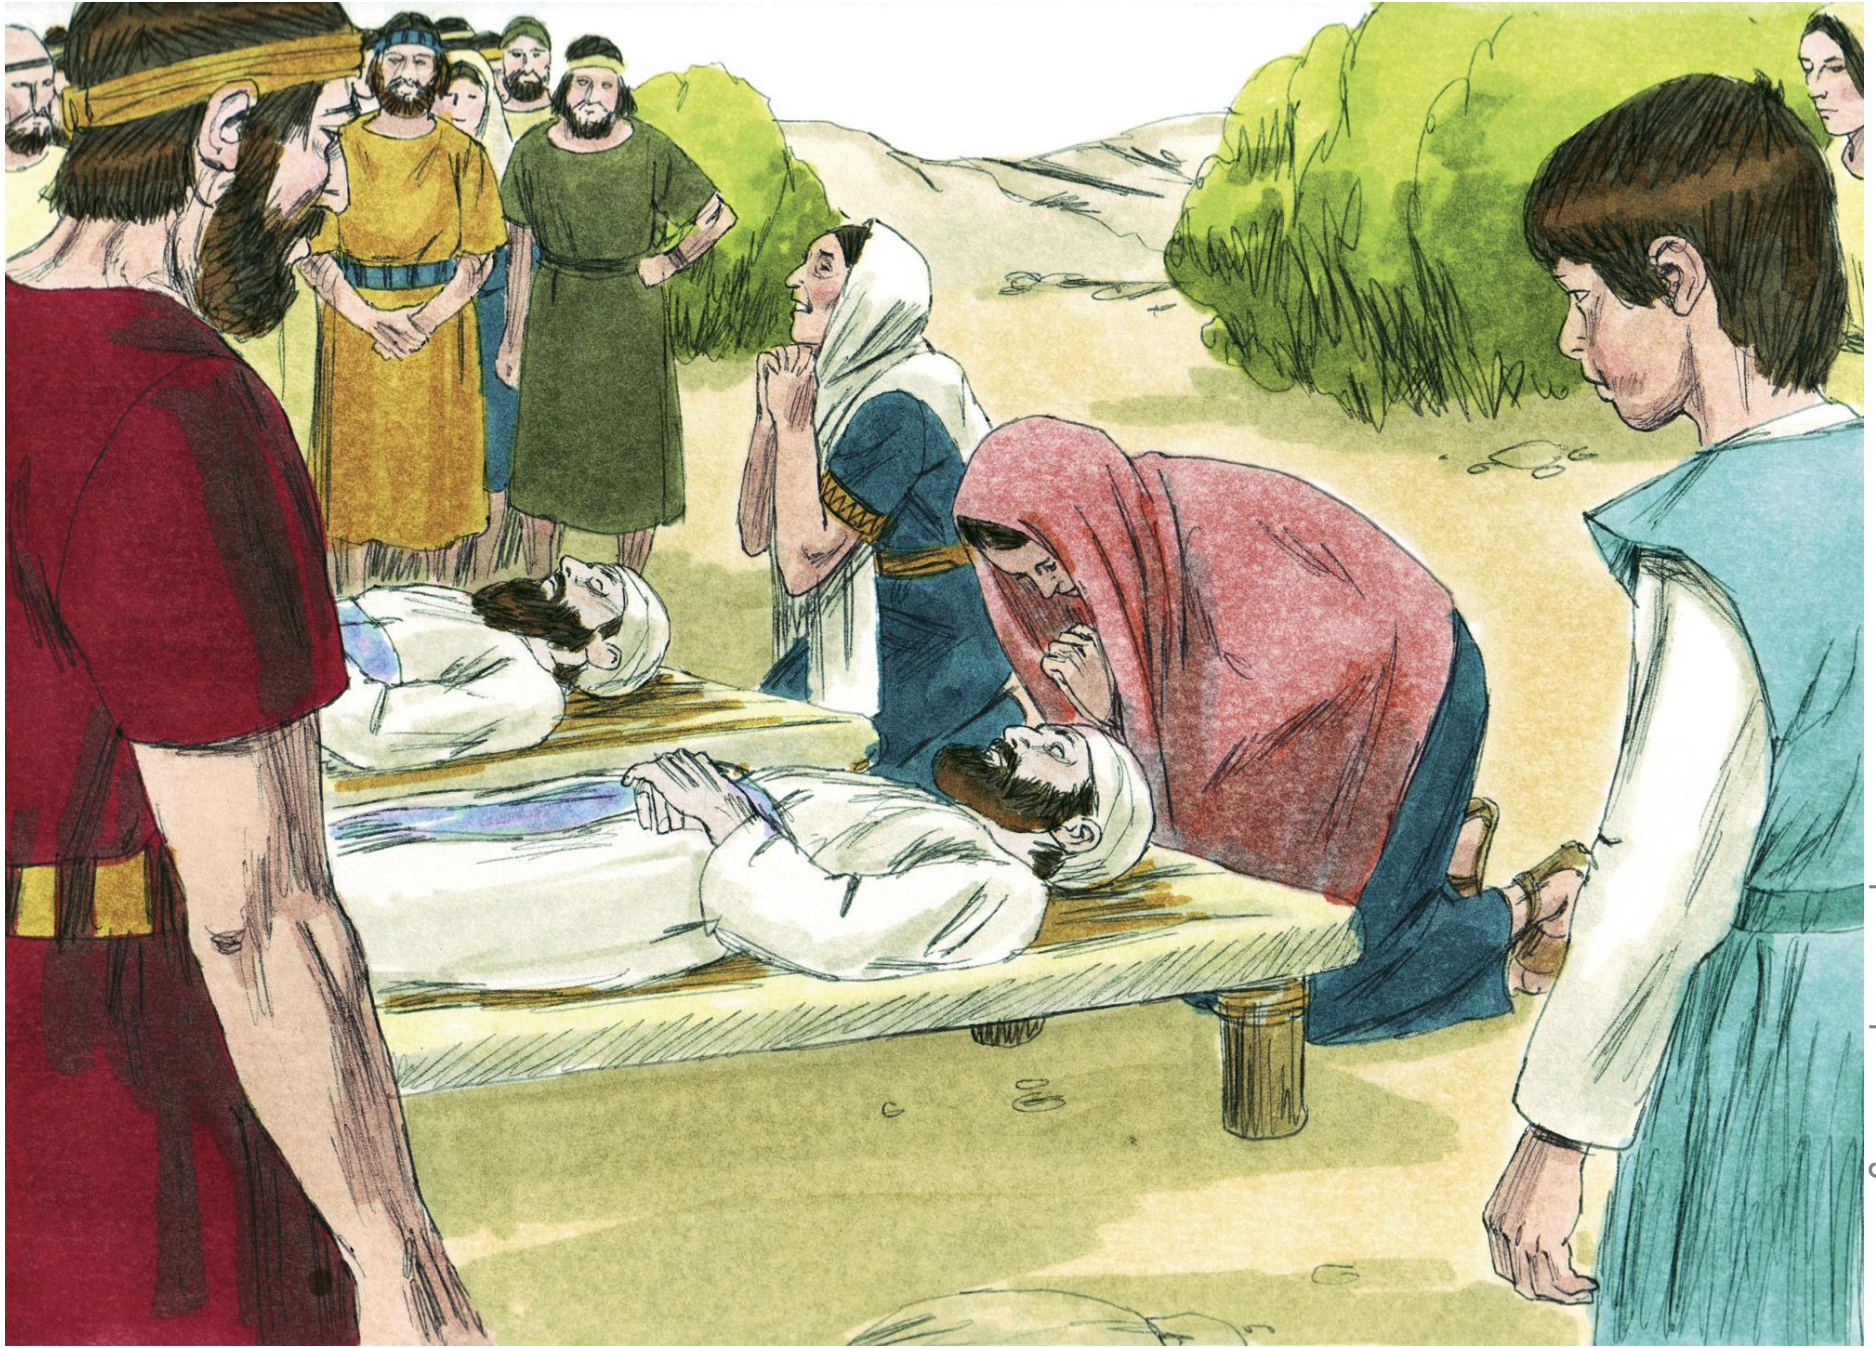

Orpah left her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to Naomi and said, “Where you go, I will go.”

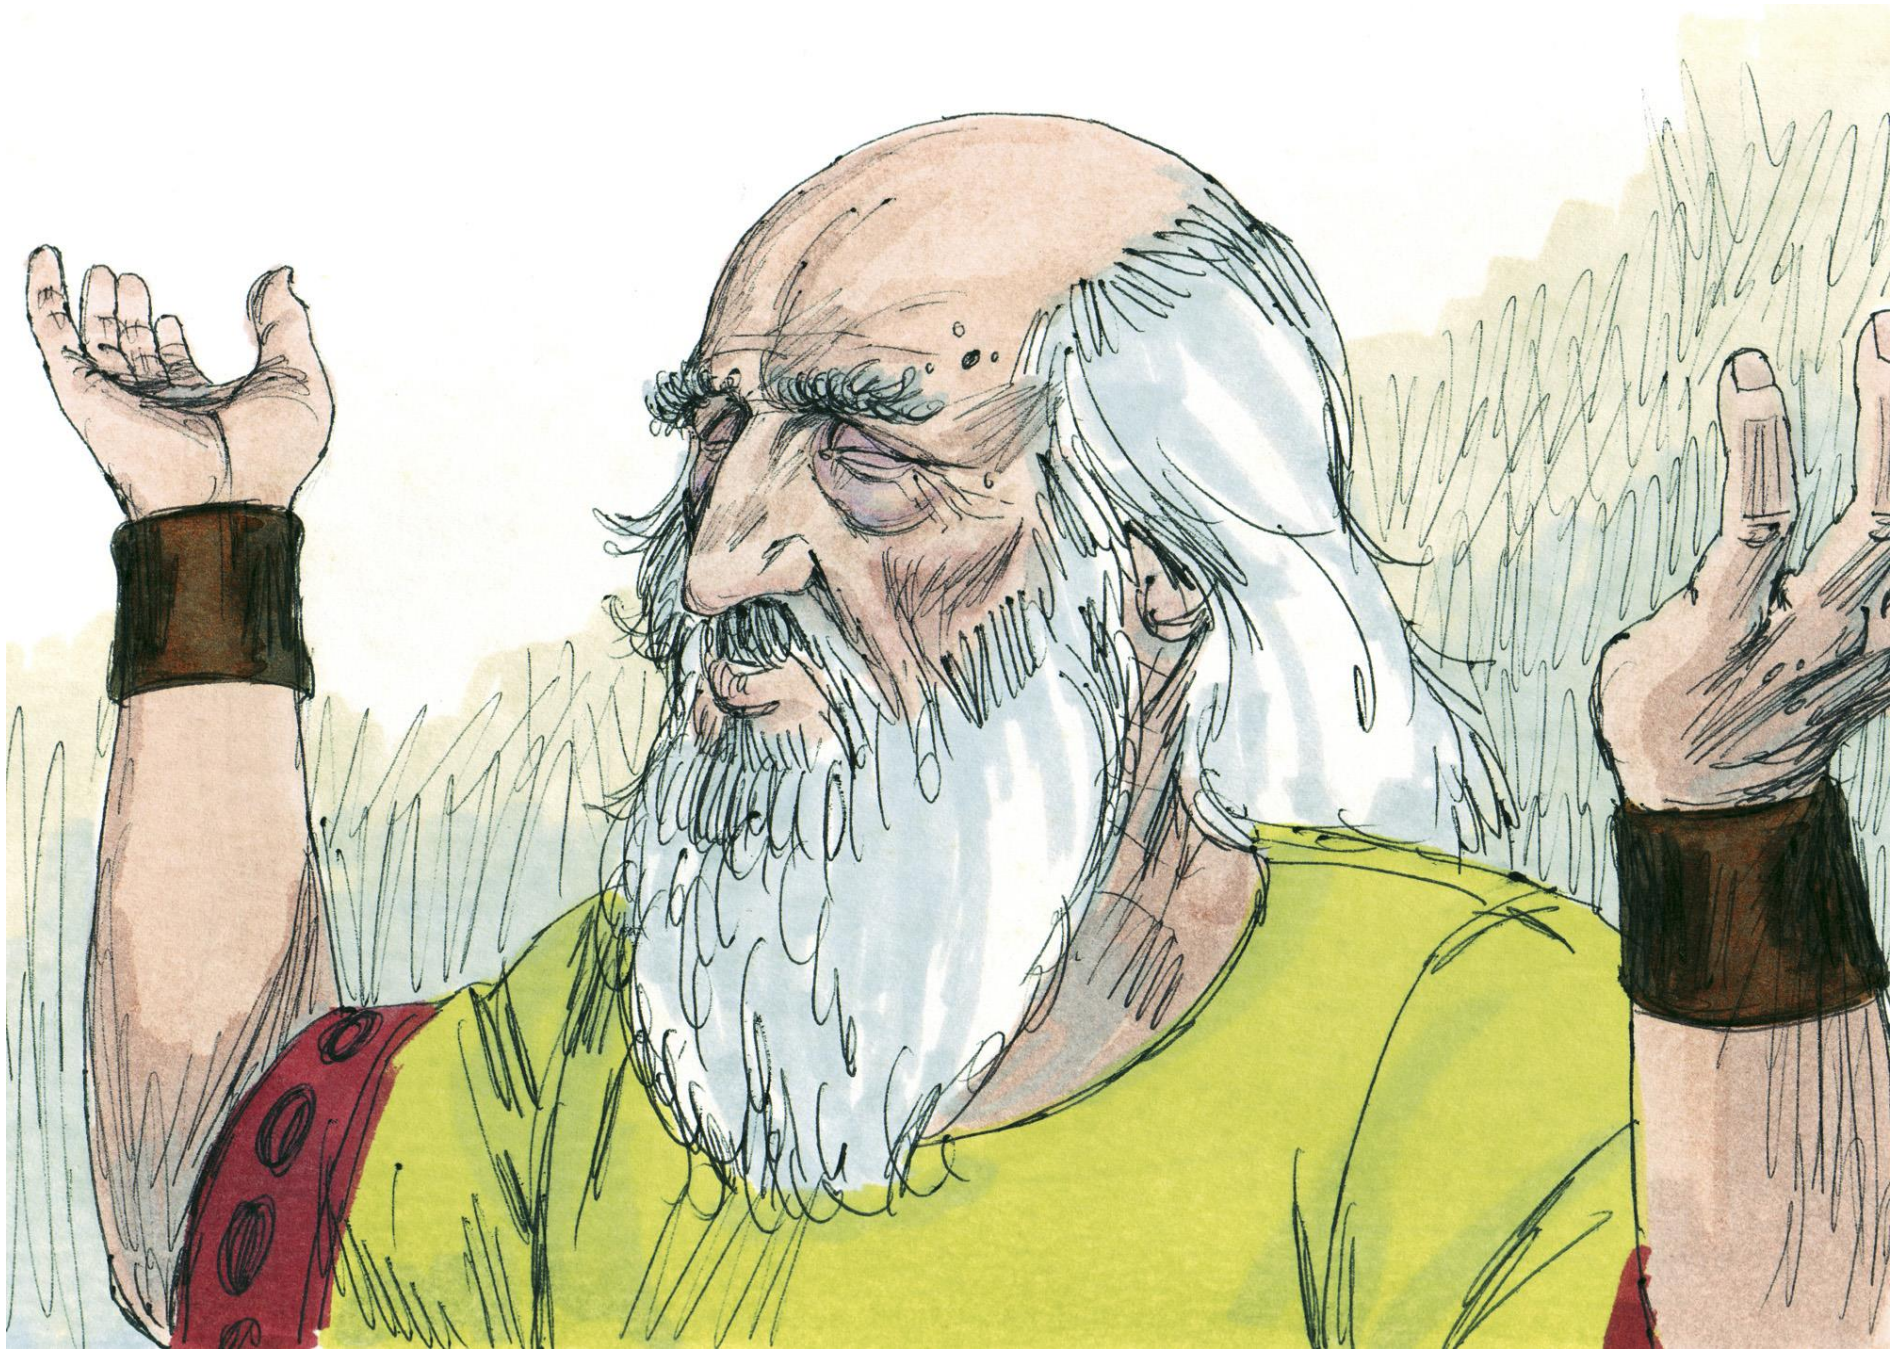

Ruth gleaned in the field of Boaz.

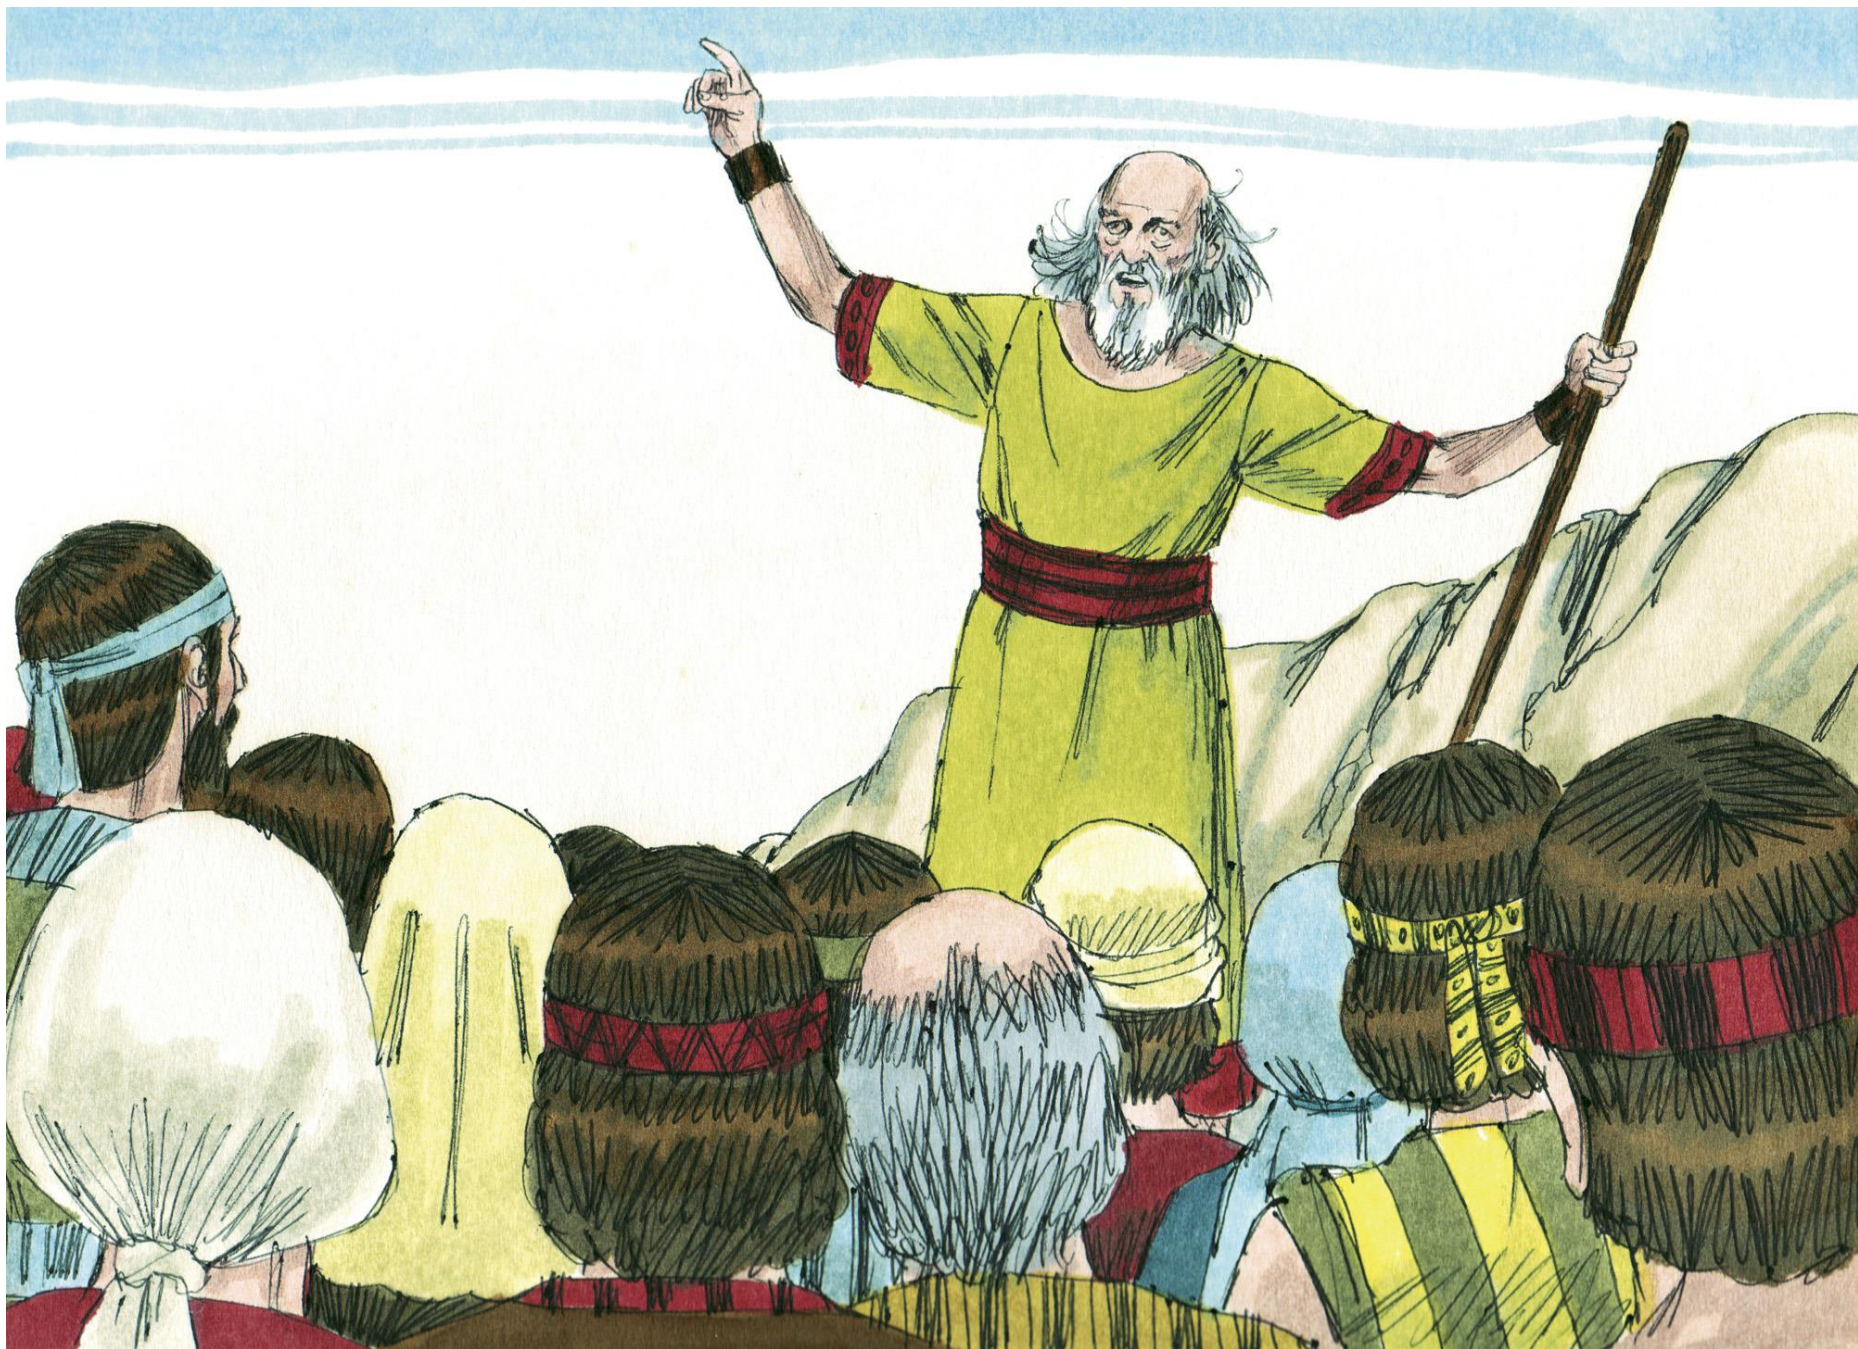

Hannah brings Samuel to live at the temple with Eli the priest.
She kept her vow to the Lord.

Samuel prayed to God. God told Samuel to obey the voice of the people and give them a king.

19a

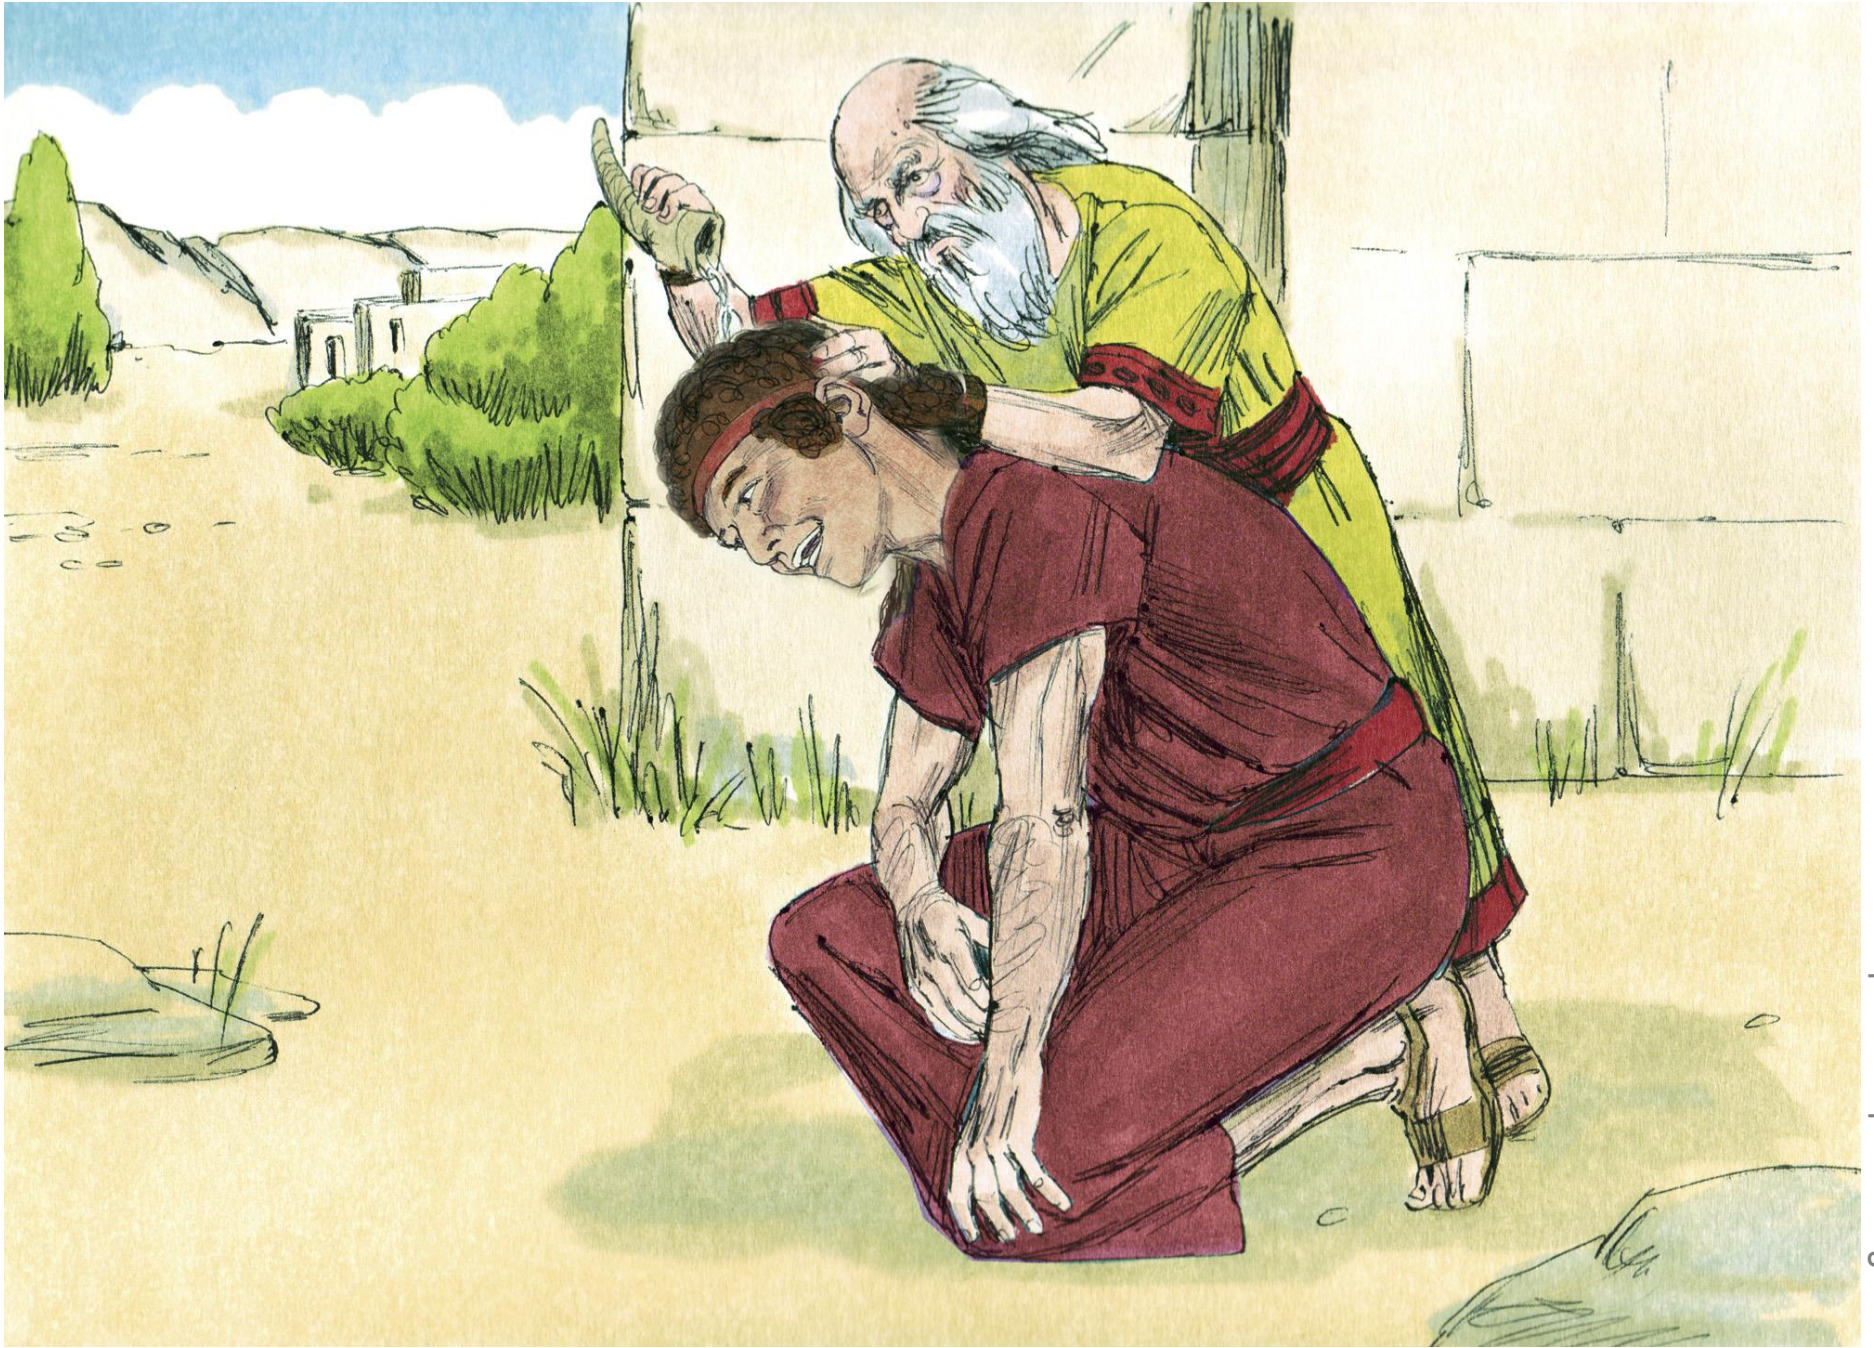

Saul meets Samuel while looking for his father's lost donkeys.

The Spirit of God rushed upon Saul. He mustered his men and struck down the Ammonites.

<http://sweetpublishing.com>

21a

Samuel anointed a new king after God rejected Saul as king.

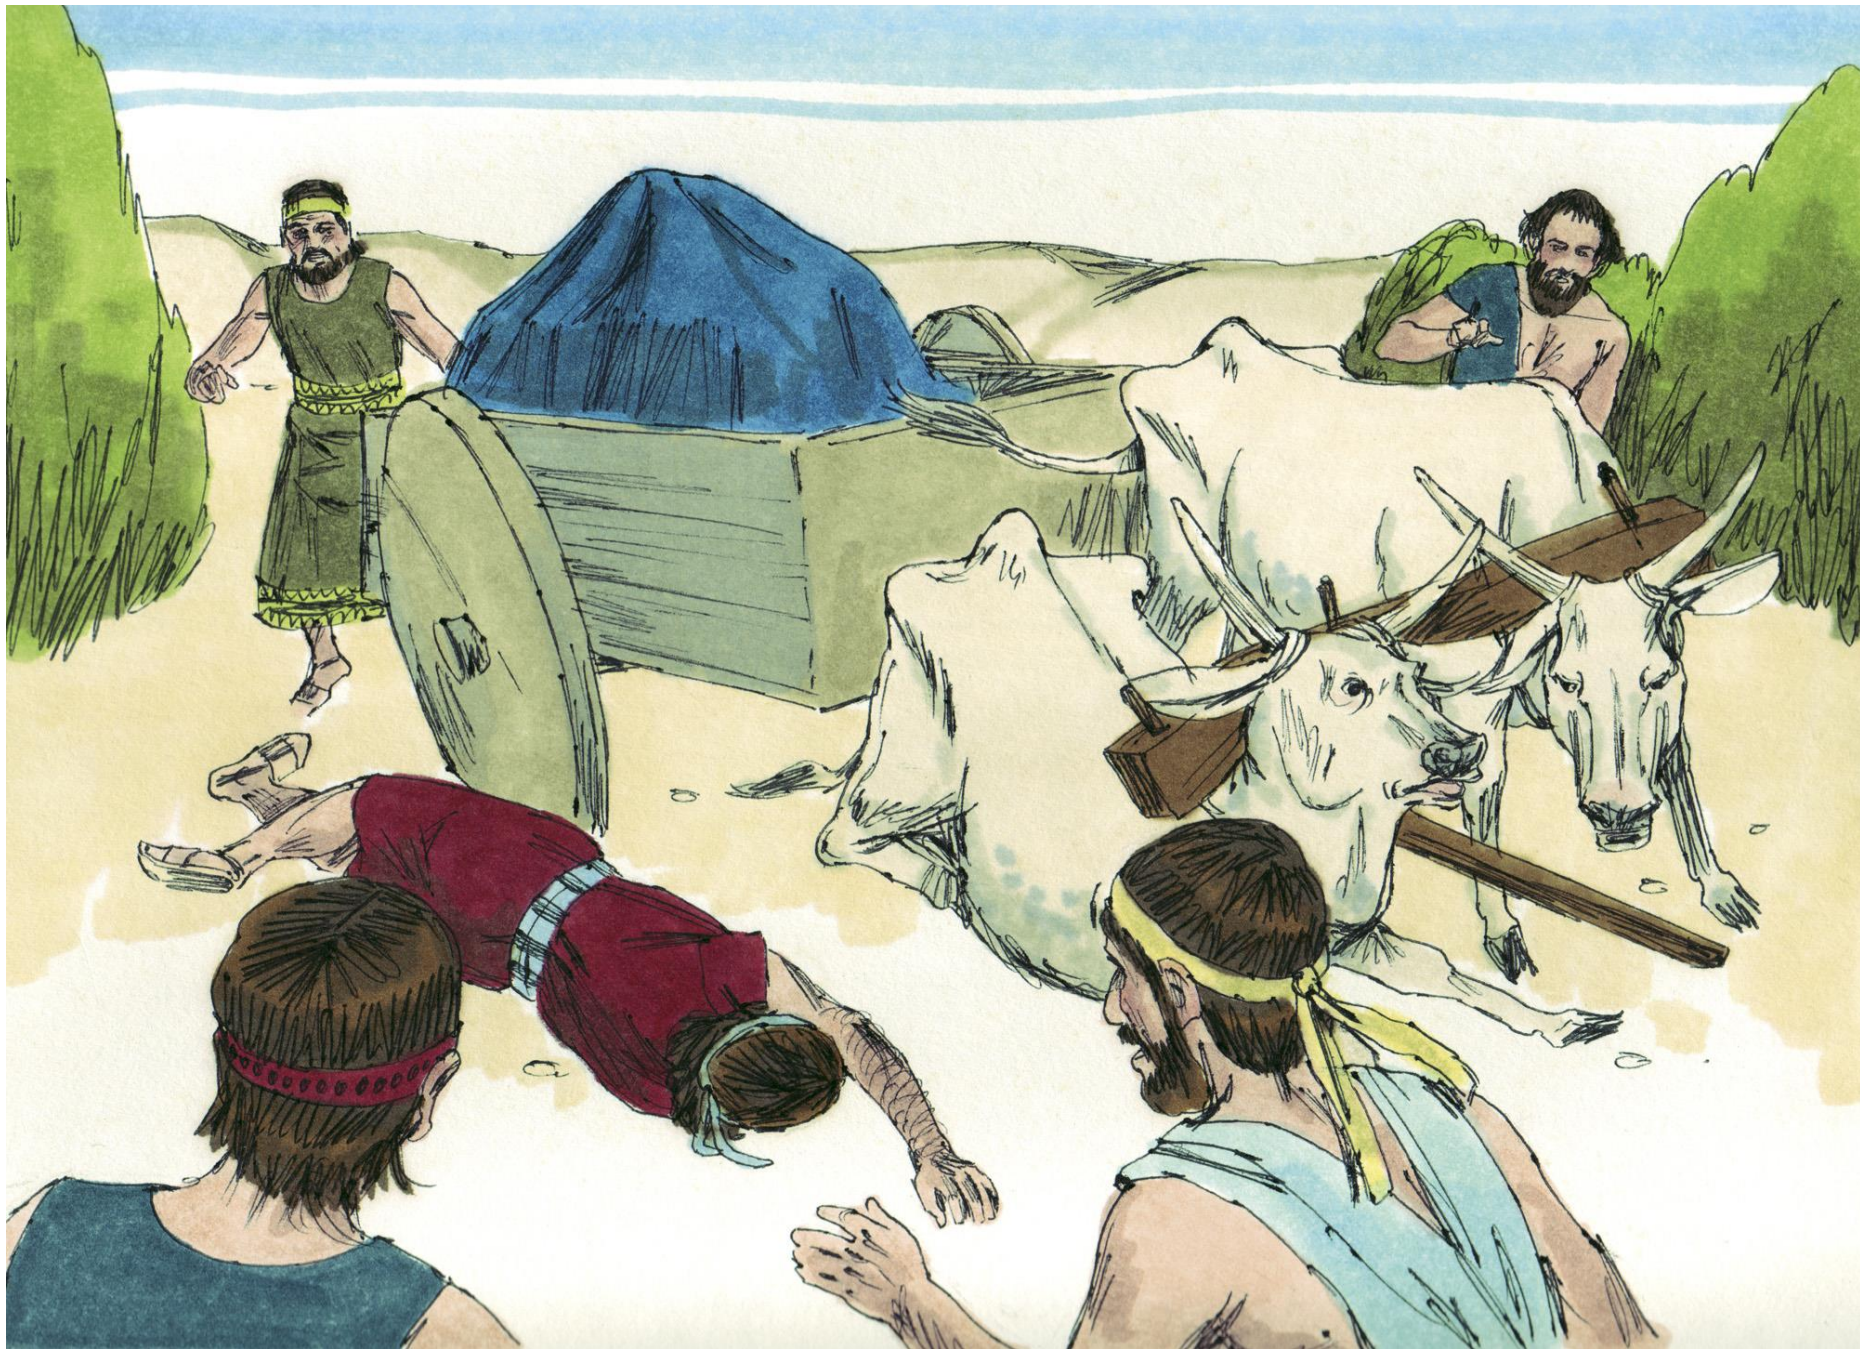

David faces Goliath with only a staff, five smooth stones, and a sling. “You come to me with sword, spear and javelin, but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts.”

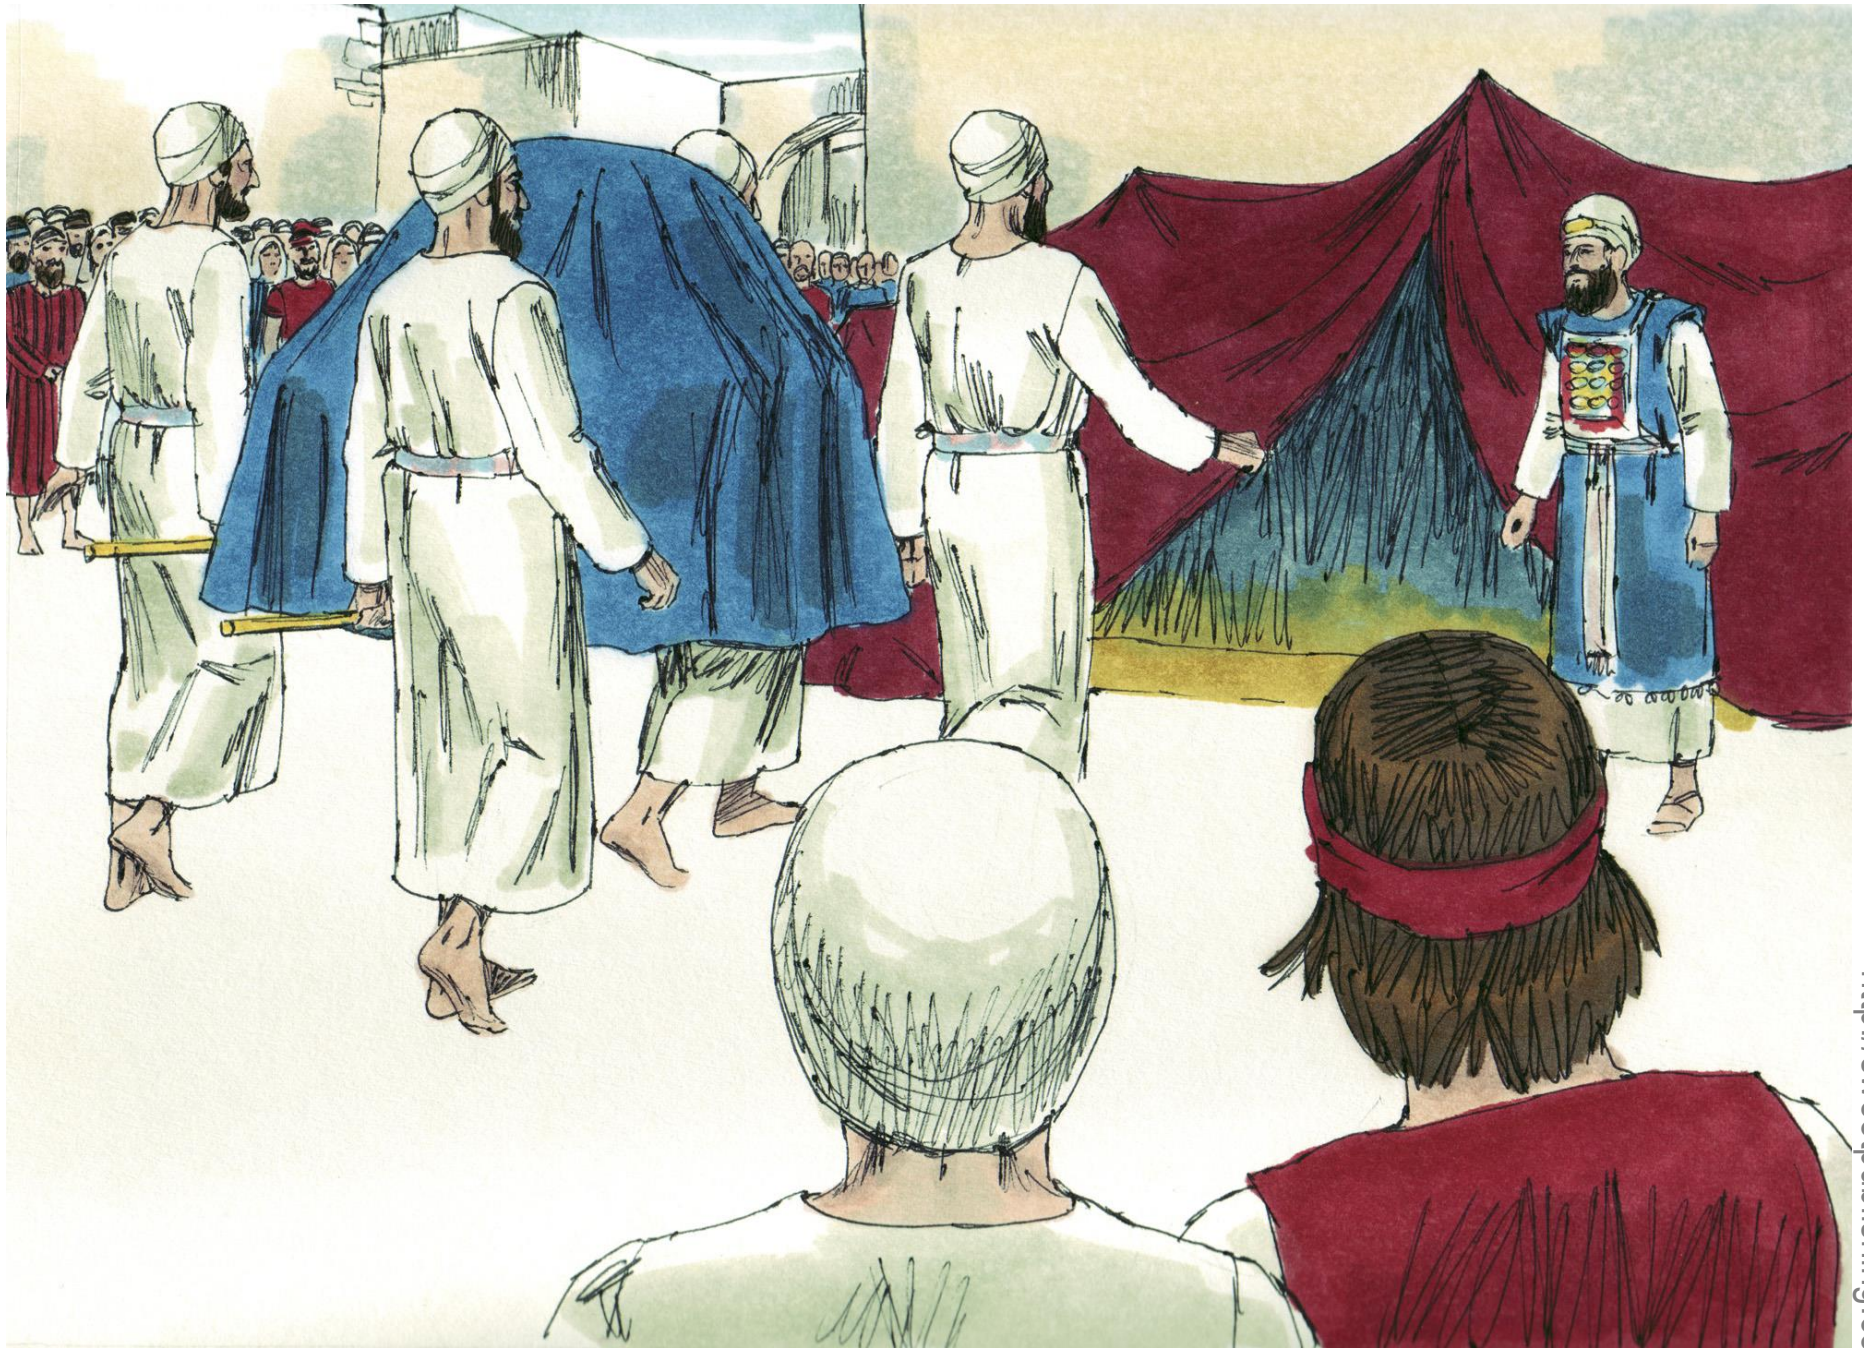

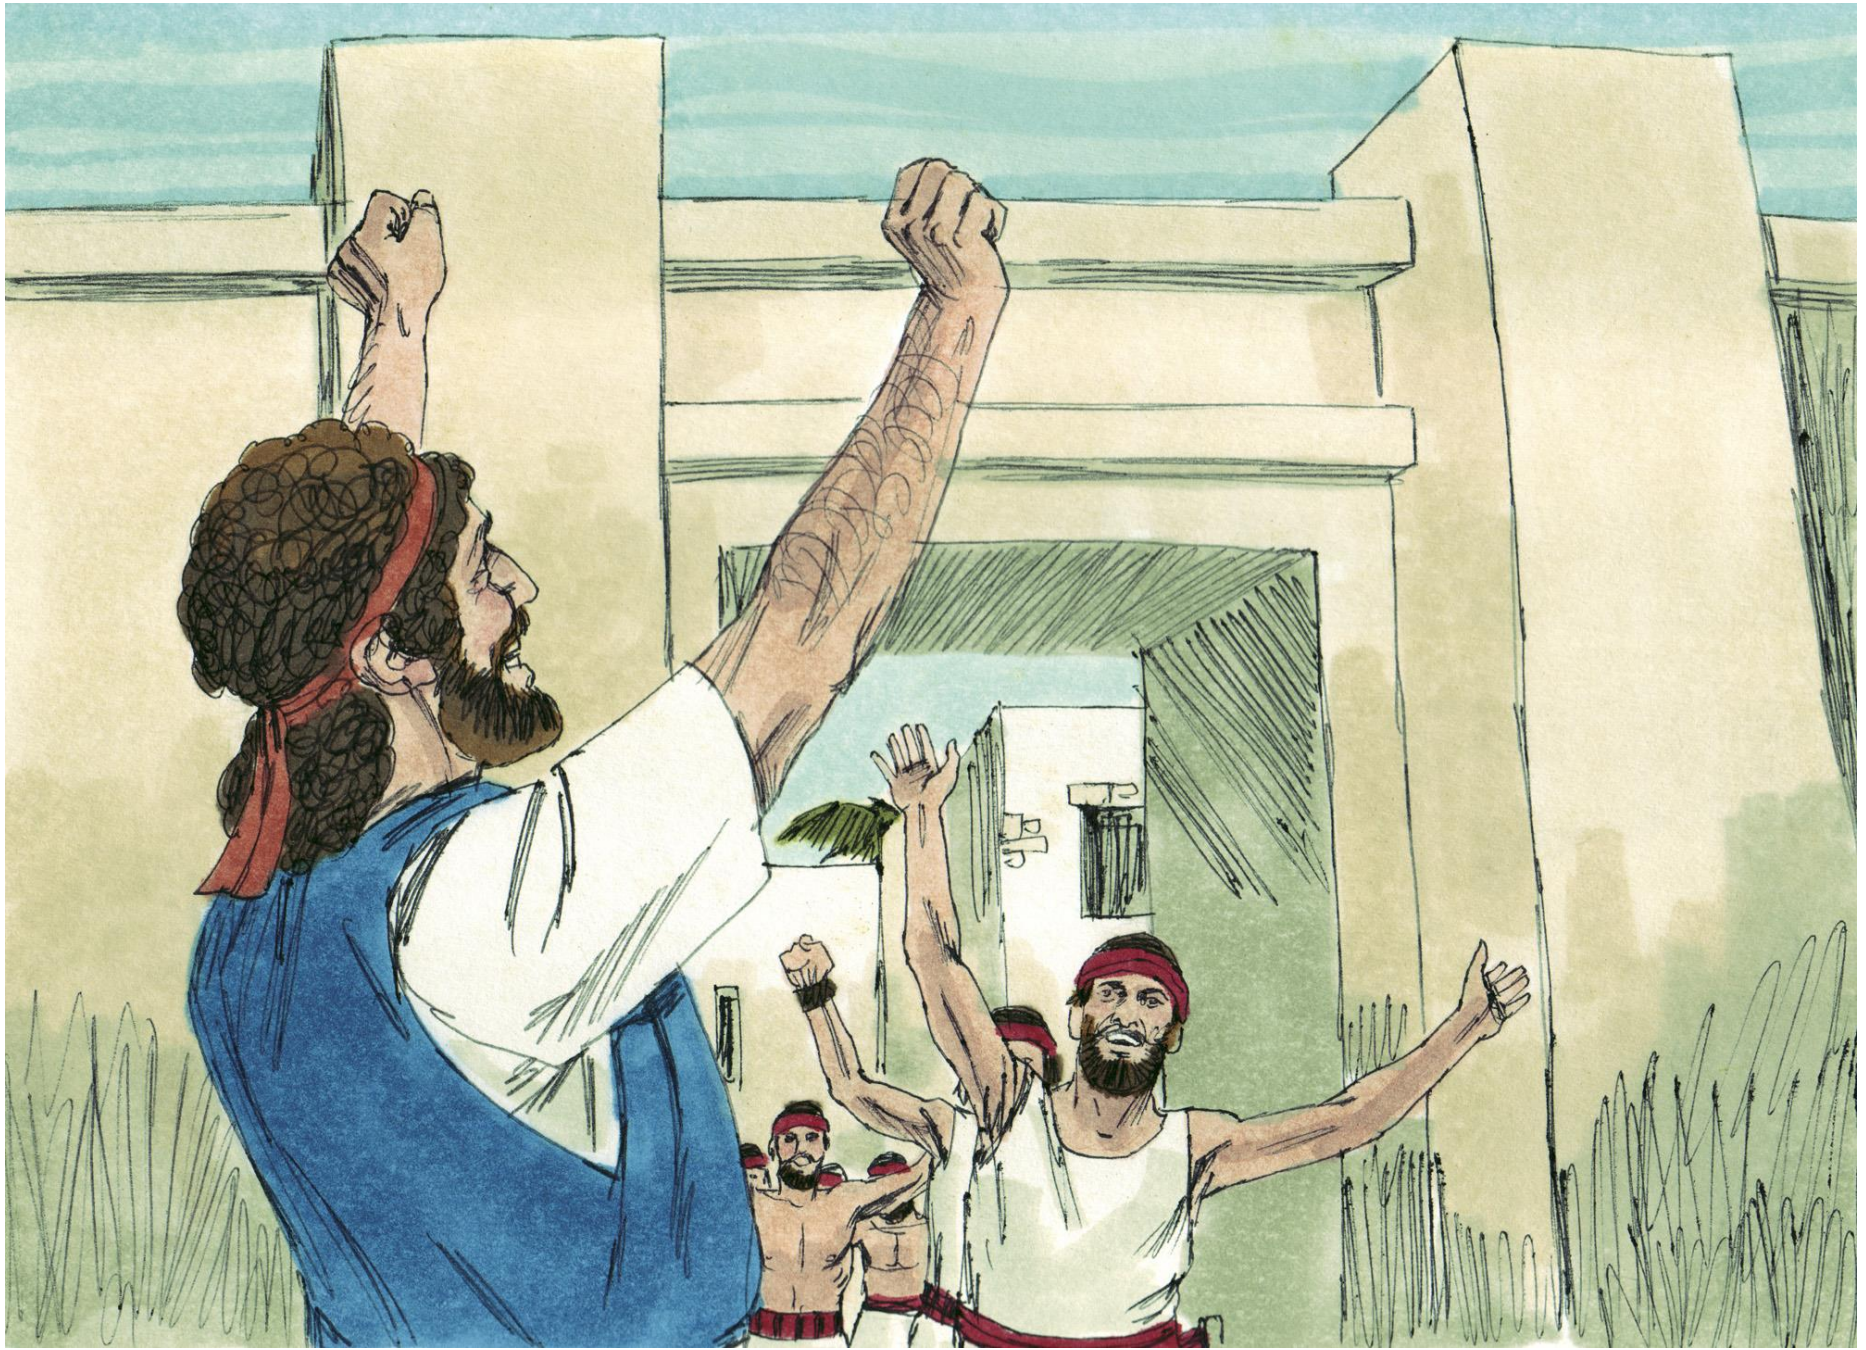

22b

God would no longer answer Saul, so he consulted a witch to try and get answers.

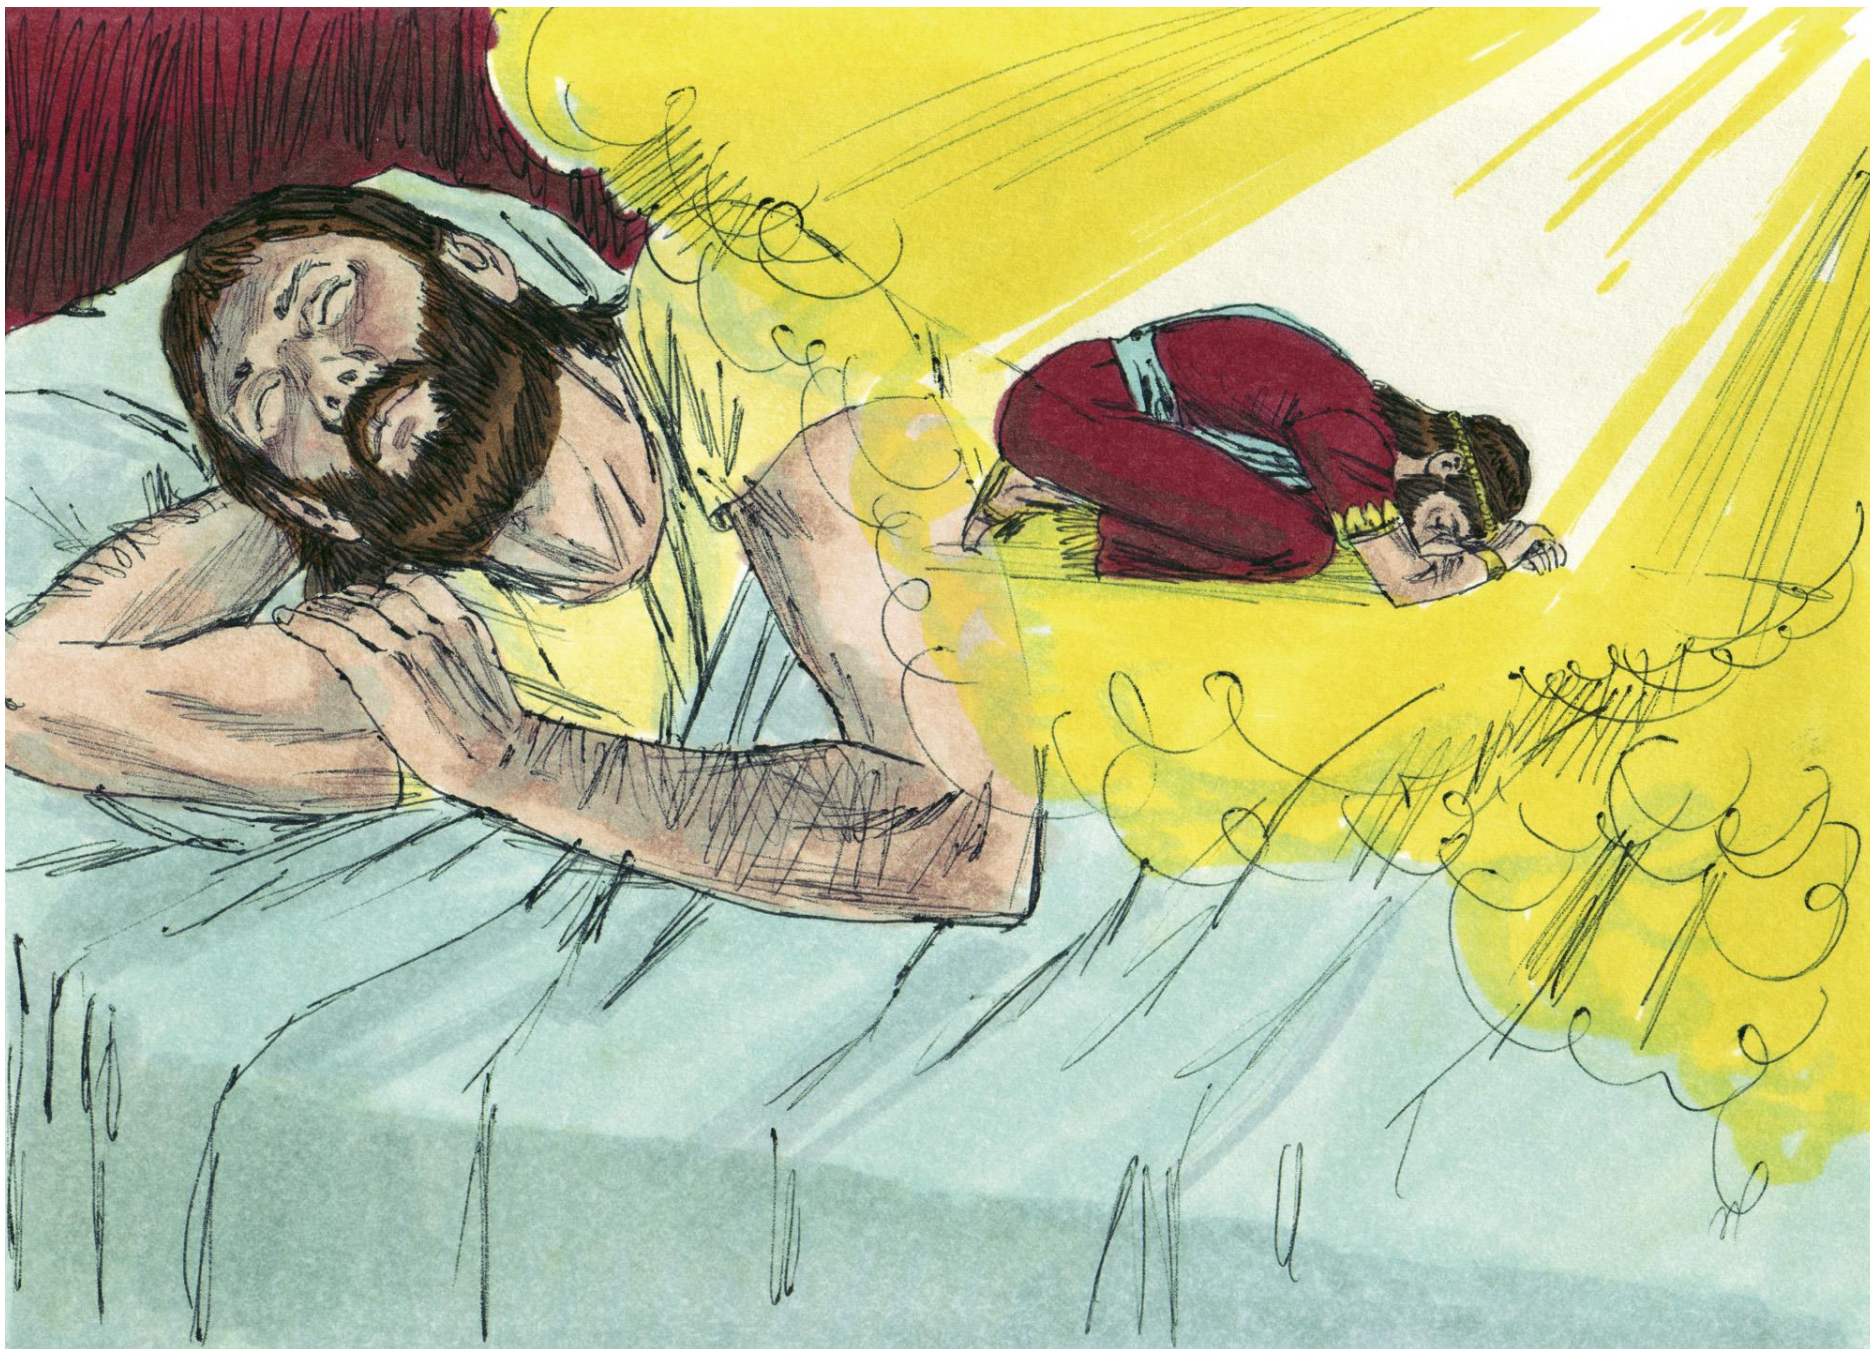

23b Before they moved the ark again, they first learned how God wanted it to be carried.

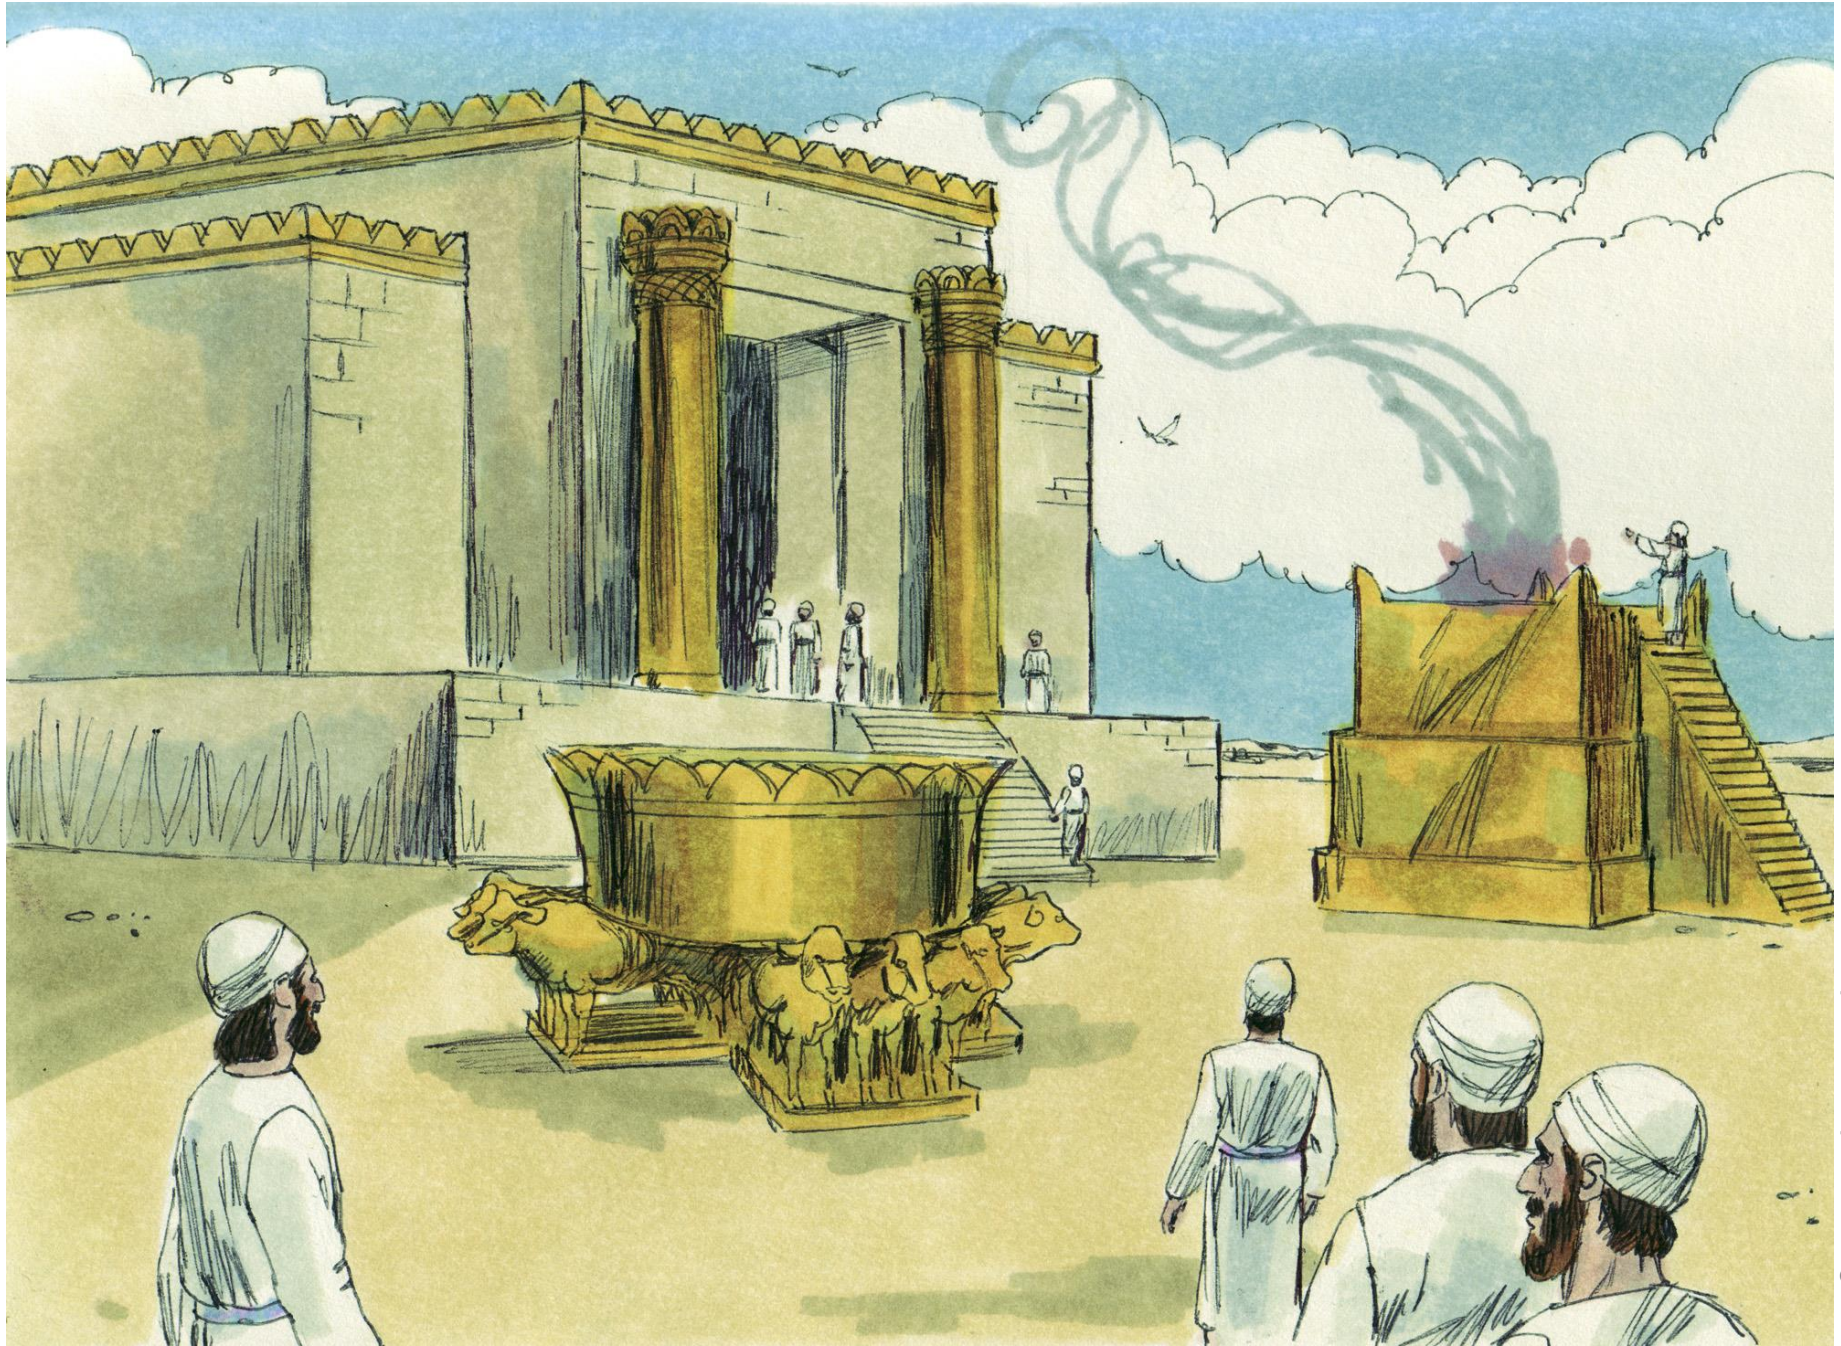

24b

David was very verbal in his praise to God. He praised God in the presence of his family and in the great assemblies.

26a

Solomon had 700 wives and 300 concubines. His wives turned his heart away and he worshiped Ashtoreth, Chemosh and Molech.

27a

Jeroboam made two golden calves to worship instead of God. He also changed the date of the feast, where they worshiped, and who could become priests.

Elijah said to Ahab, "As the Lord, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, except by my word."

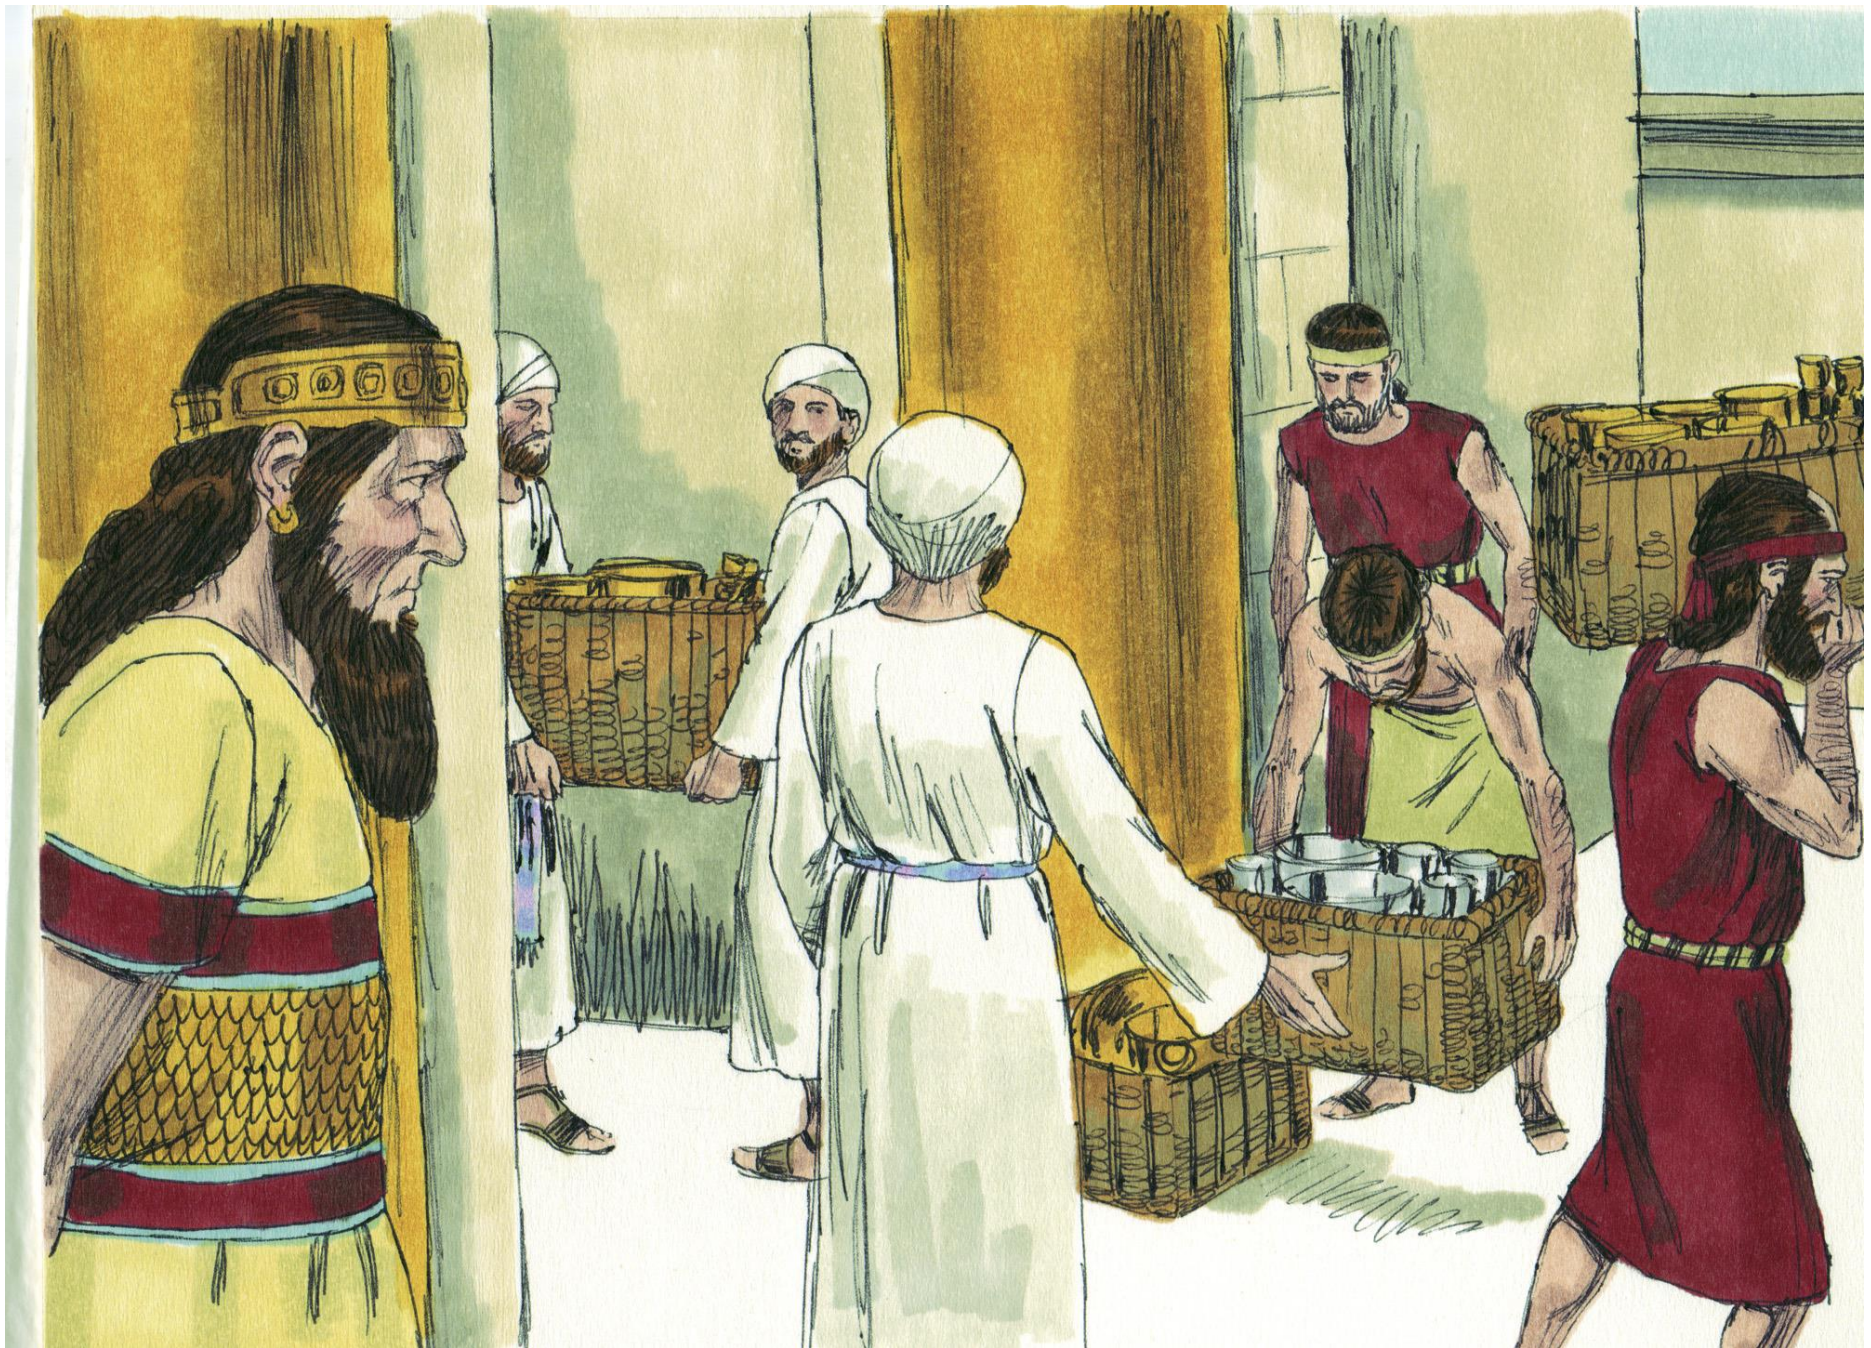

Jehu was able to get rid of Baal worship in Israel.

Assyria captured the capital city of Israel—Samaria—and carried the Israelites away and placed them in different cities.

WHY did God send the Israelites into exile? The Israelites served idols, set up Asherim and did wicked things provoking the LORD to anger.

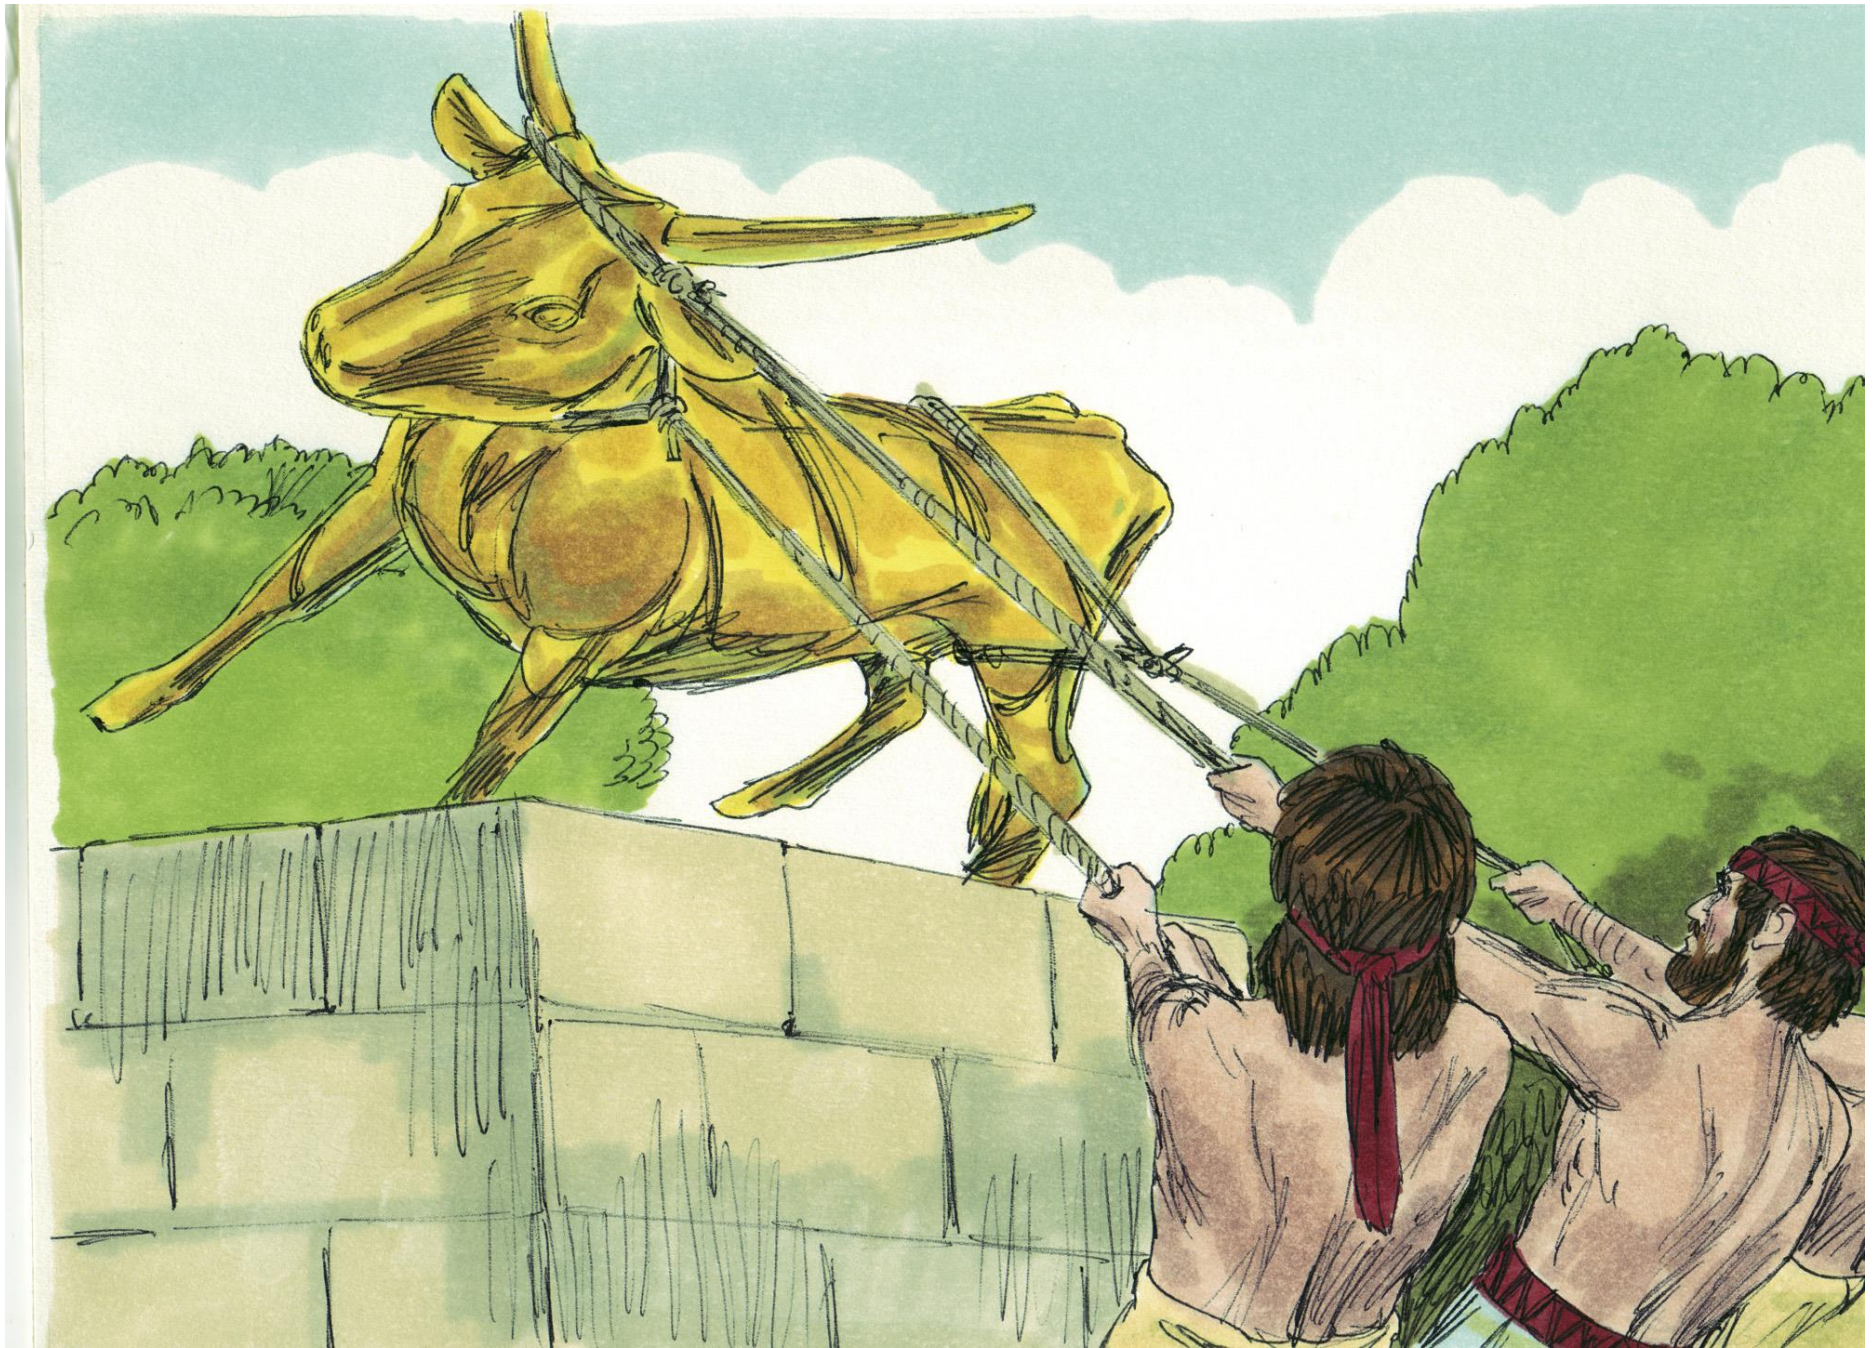

32a

While they were restoring the LORD's house during Josiah's reign, they found the Book of the Law of the LORD. They read the book to the king and he tore his clothes.

32b Josiah broke down the idols in the country of Judah, and then went to Israel and pulled down the golden calves that Jeroboam made.

33a

King Jehoiakim would cut off the columns from the scroll that they had just read and burned them in the firepot.

The Babylonians took away the gold articles, burned the temple, and every important building, broke down the walls and carried many people into exile.

34b

The people thought Jeremiah was lying to them and did not obey God.
They left Judah to go live in Egypt.

The officials found Daniel praying to God, and threw him in the lion's den. God shut the lions' mouths, and Daniel was not harmed.

36a

The Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus, king of Persia. He allowed the Jews to return to their homeland and rebuild the temple to God.

36b

Their adversaries discouraged the Jews, and made them afraid to build the temple.
They wrote an accusing letter against them to the King of Persia.

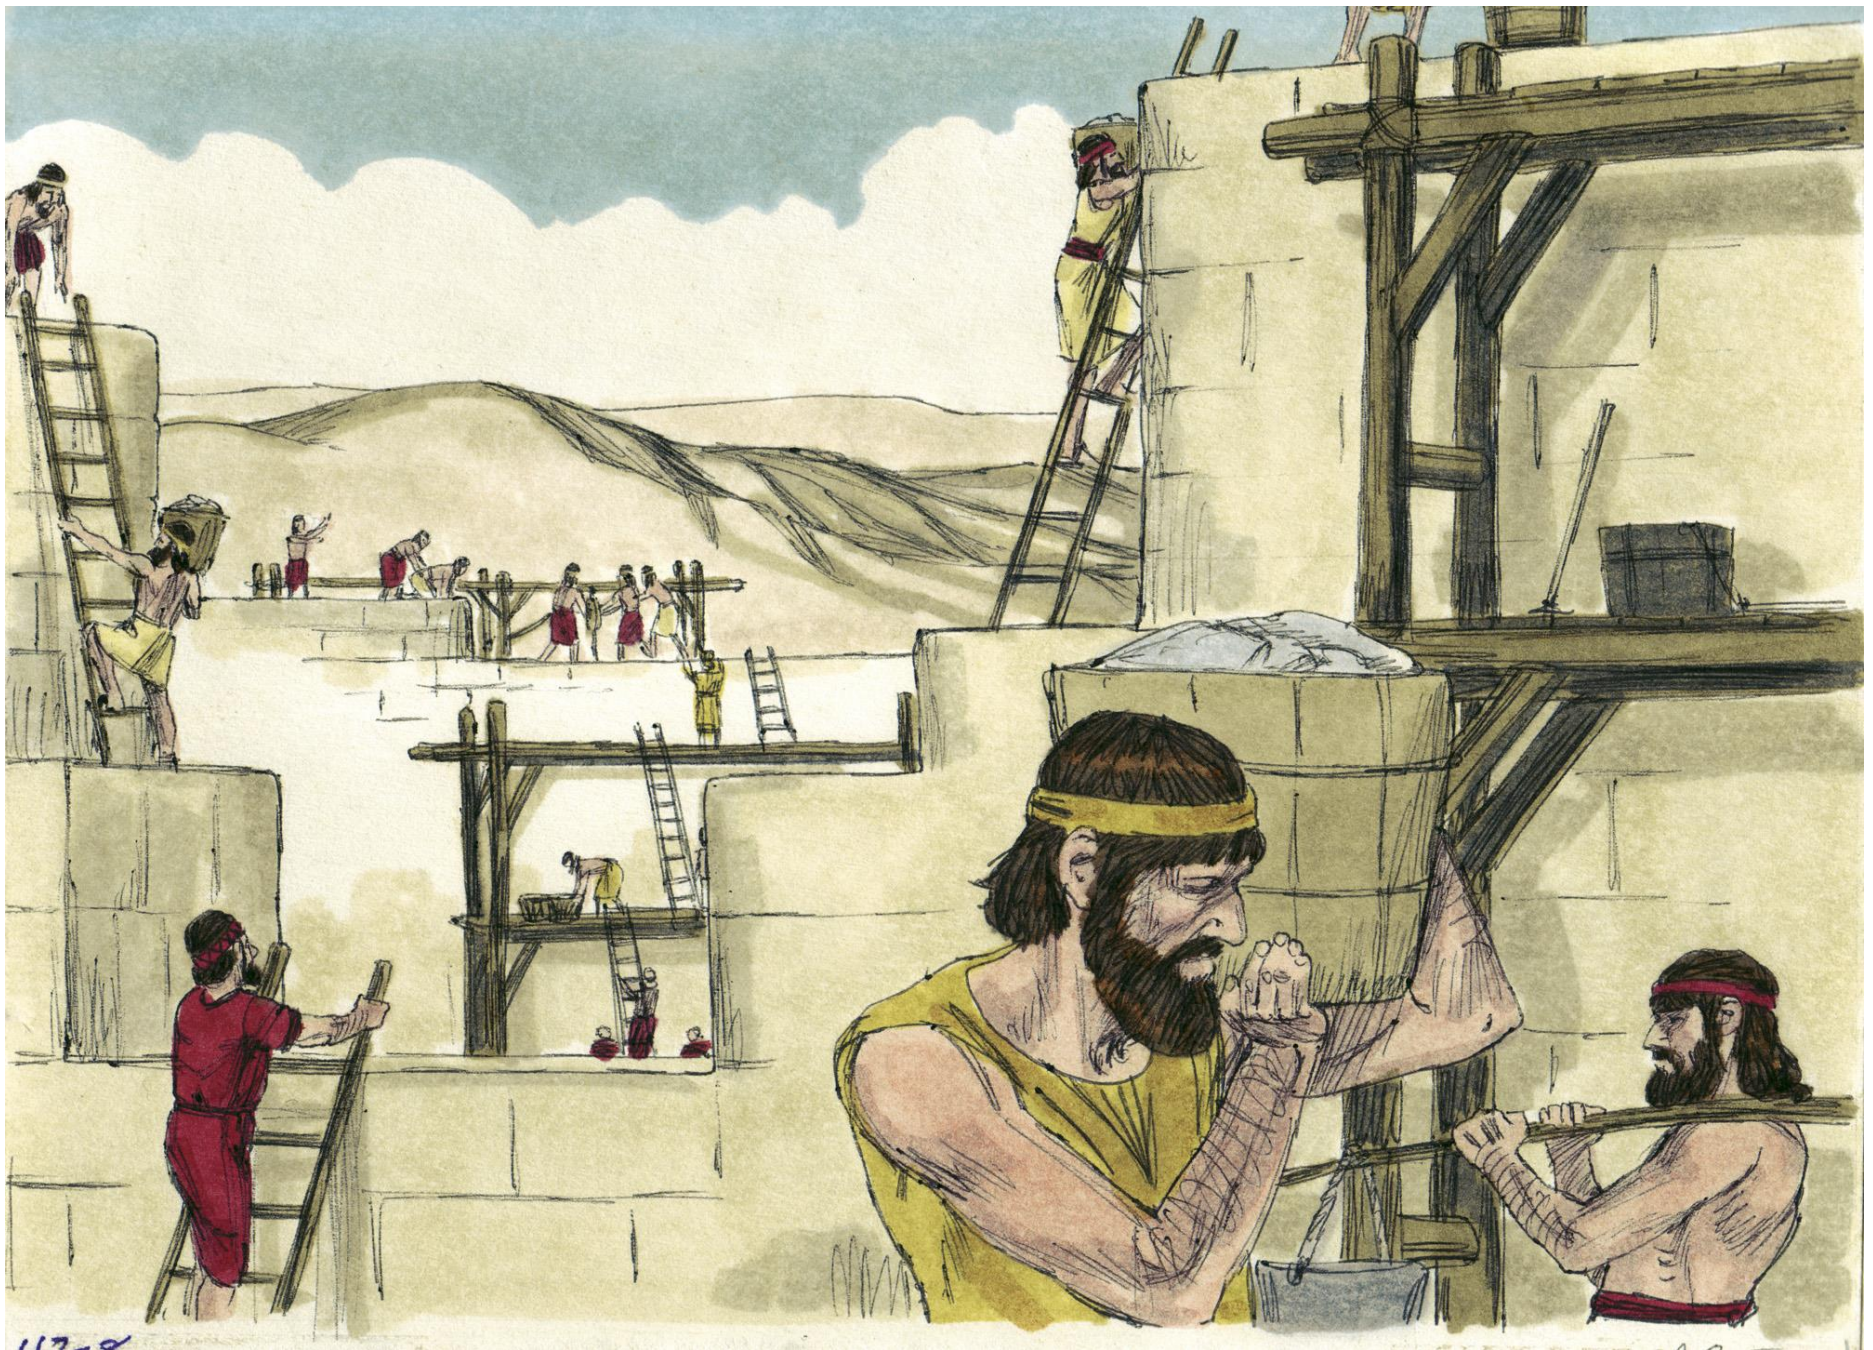

37b

At the banquet she gave for the king and Haman, Esther wished for her life and the lives of the Jews. She exposed Haman's wicked plan to destroy her people.

Nehemiah took the wine to the king and told him about the situation in Jerusalem—that his city was in ruins.

38b Working together, the Jews began rebuilding the wall—priests, goldsmiths, perfumers, rulers, daughters, temple servants and merchants. The wall was finished in 52 days.

God made a covenant with Abraham that all the nations of the world would be blessed through him.

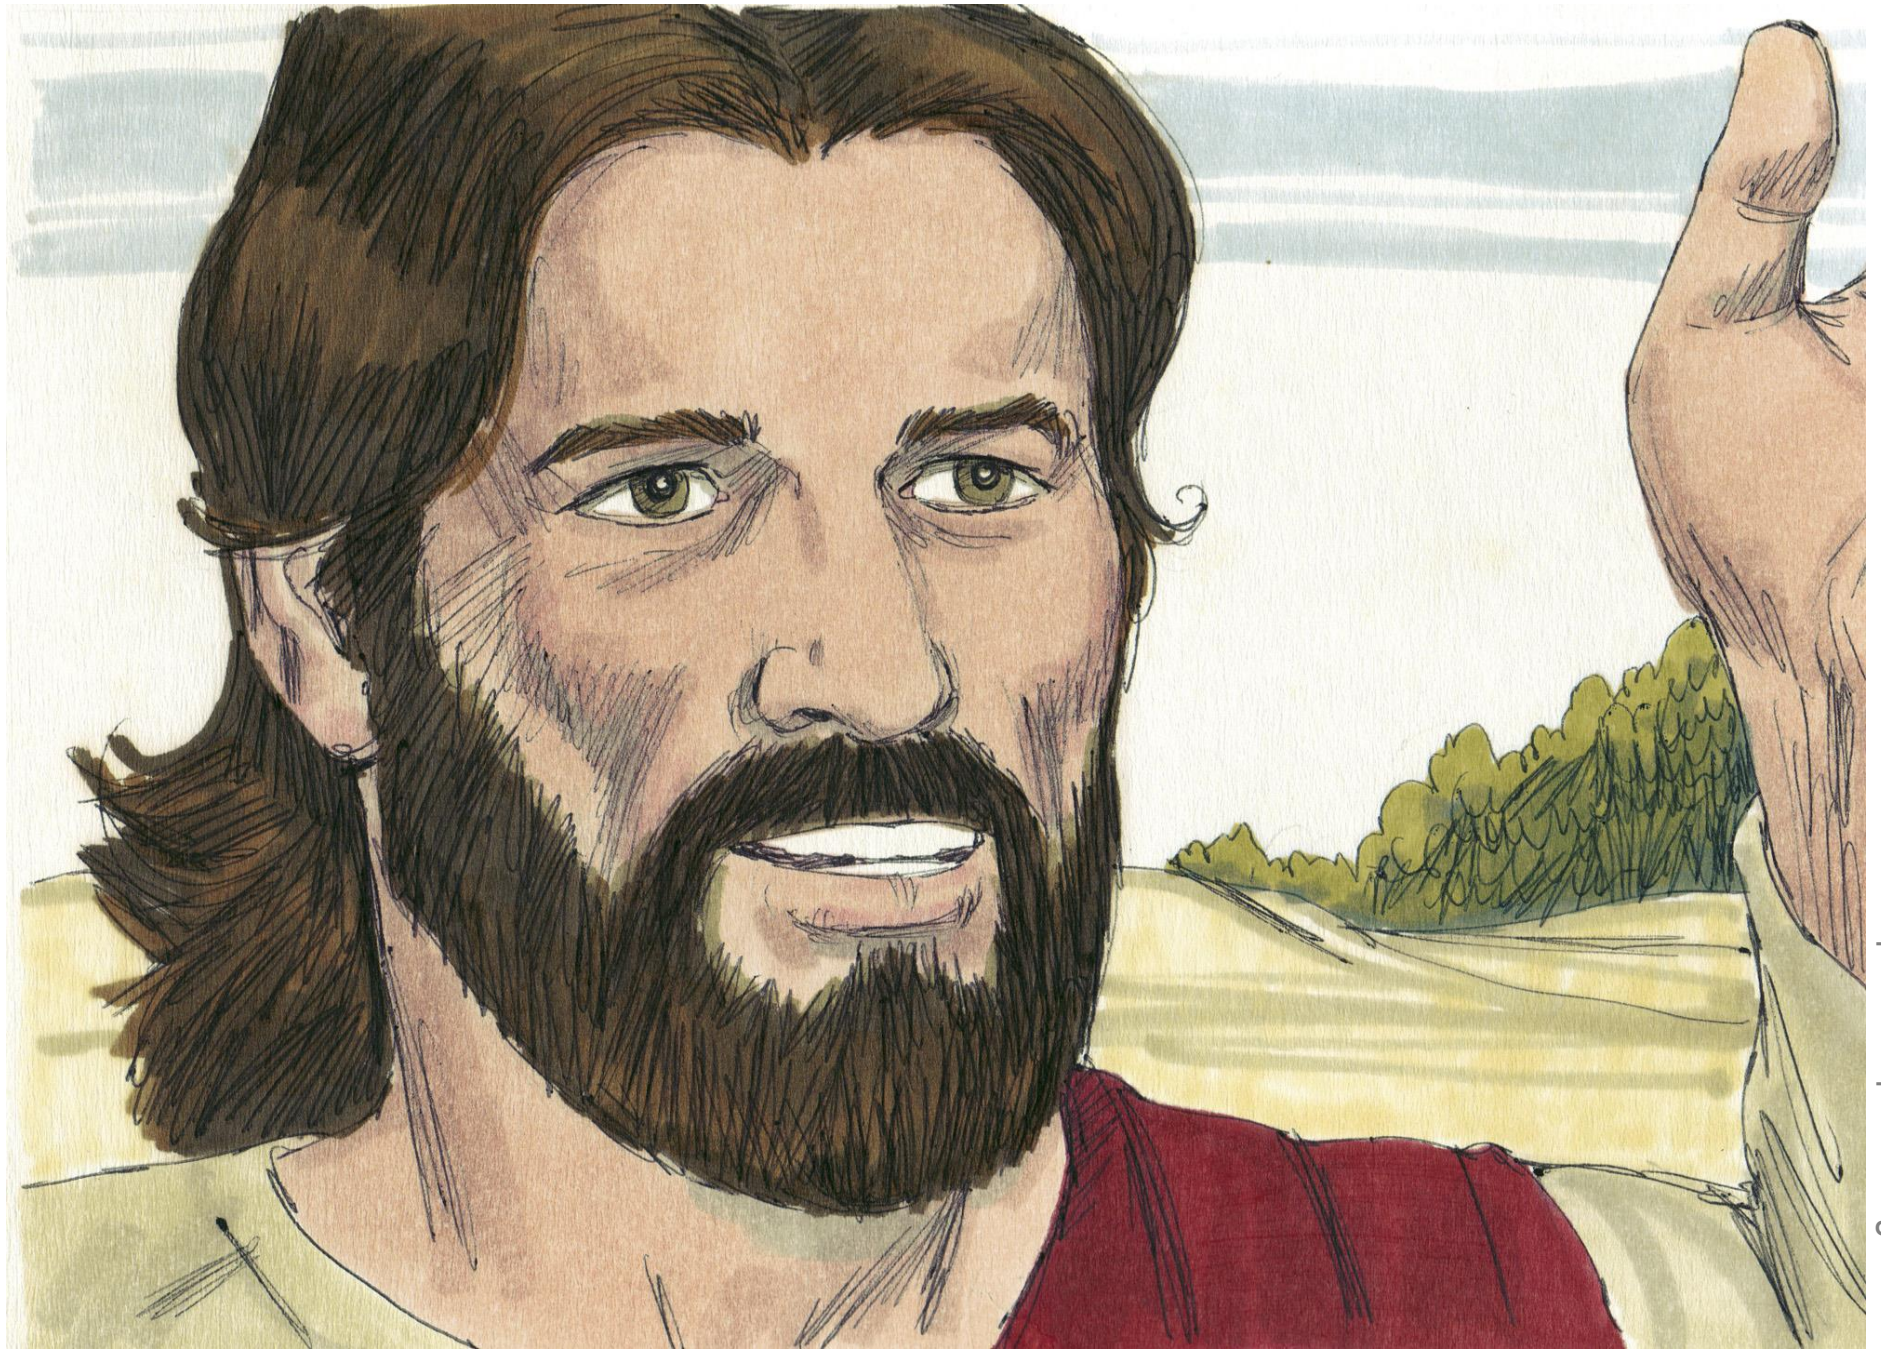

Mary gave birth to her firstborn son, wrapped Him in swaddling cloths and laid the baby in a manger.

Jesus was baptized by John in the Jordan River. The Spirit descended on him like a dove, and a voice from heaven said, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

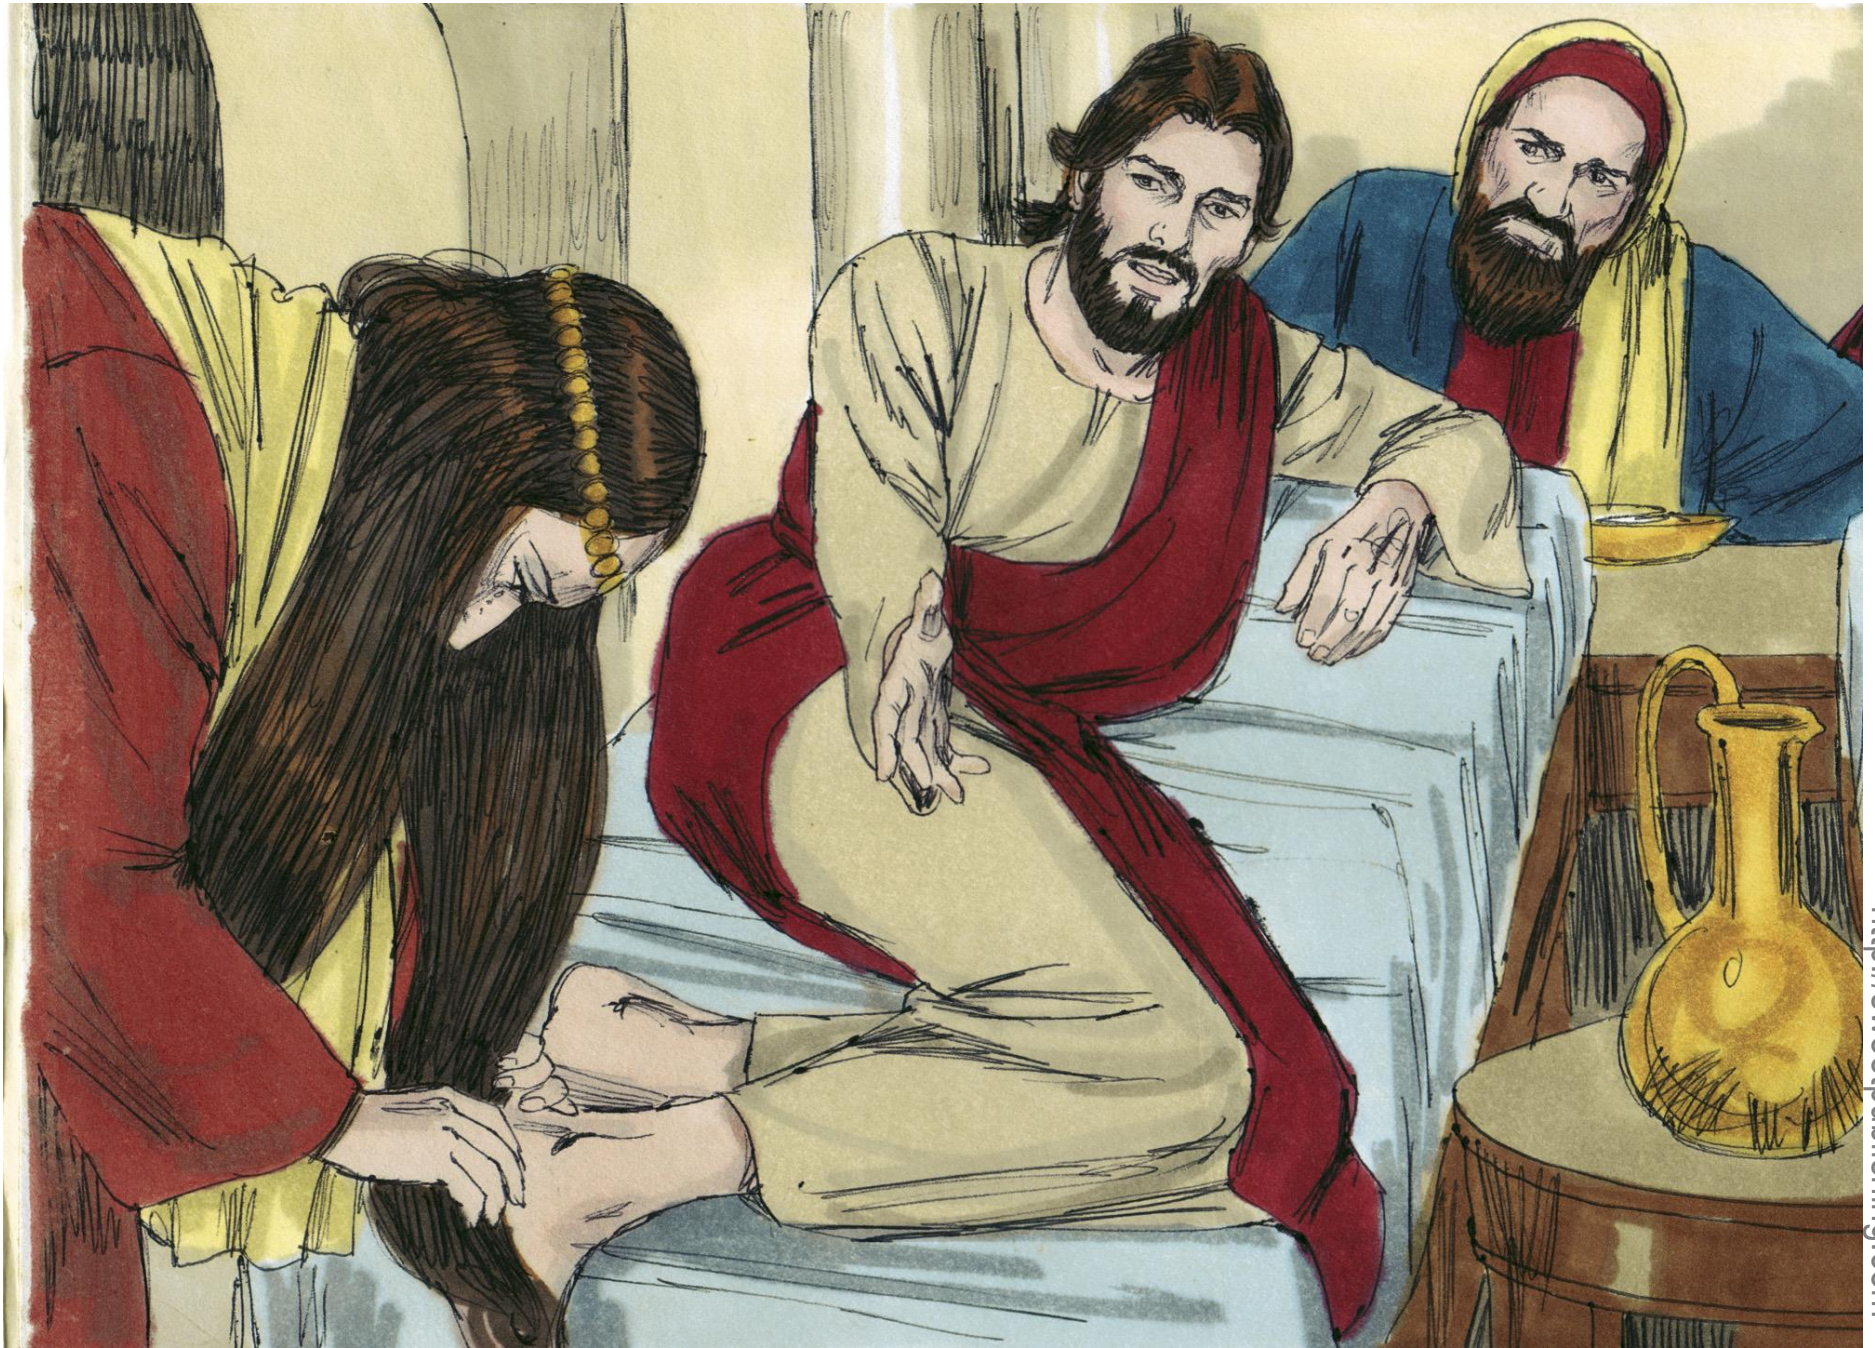

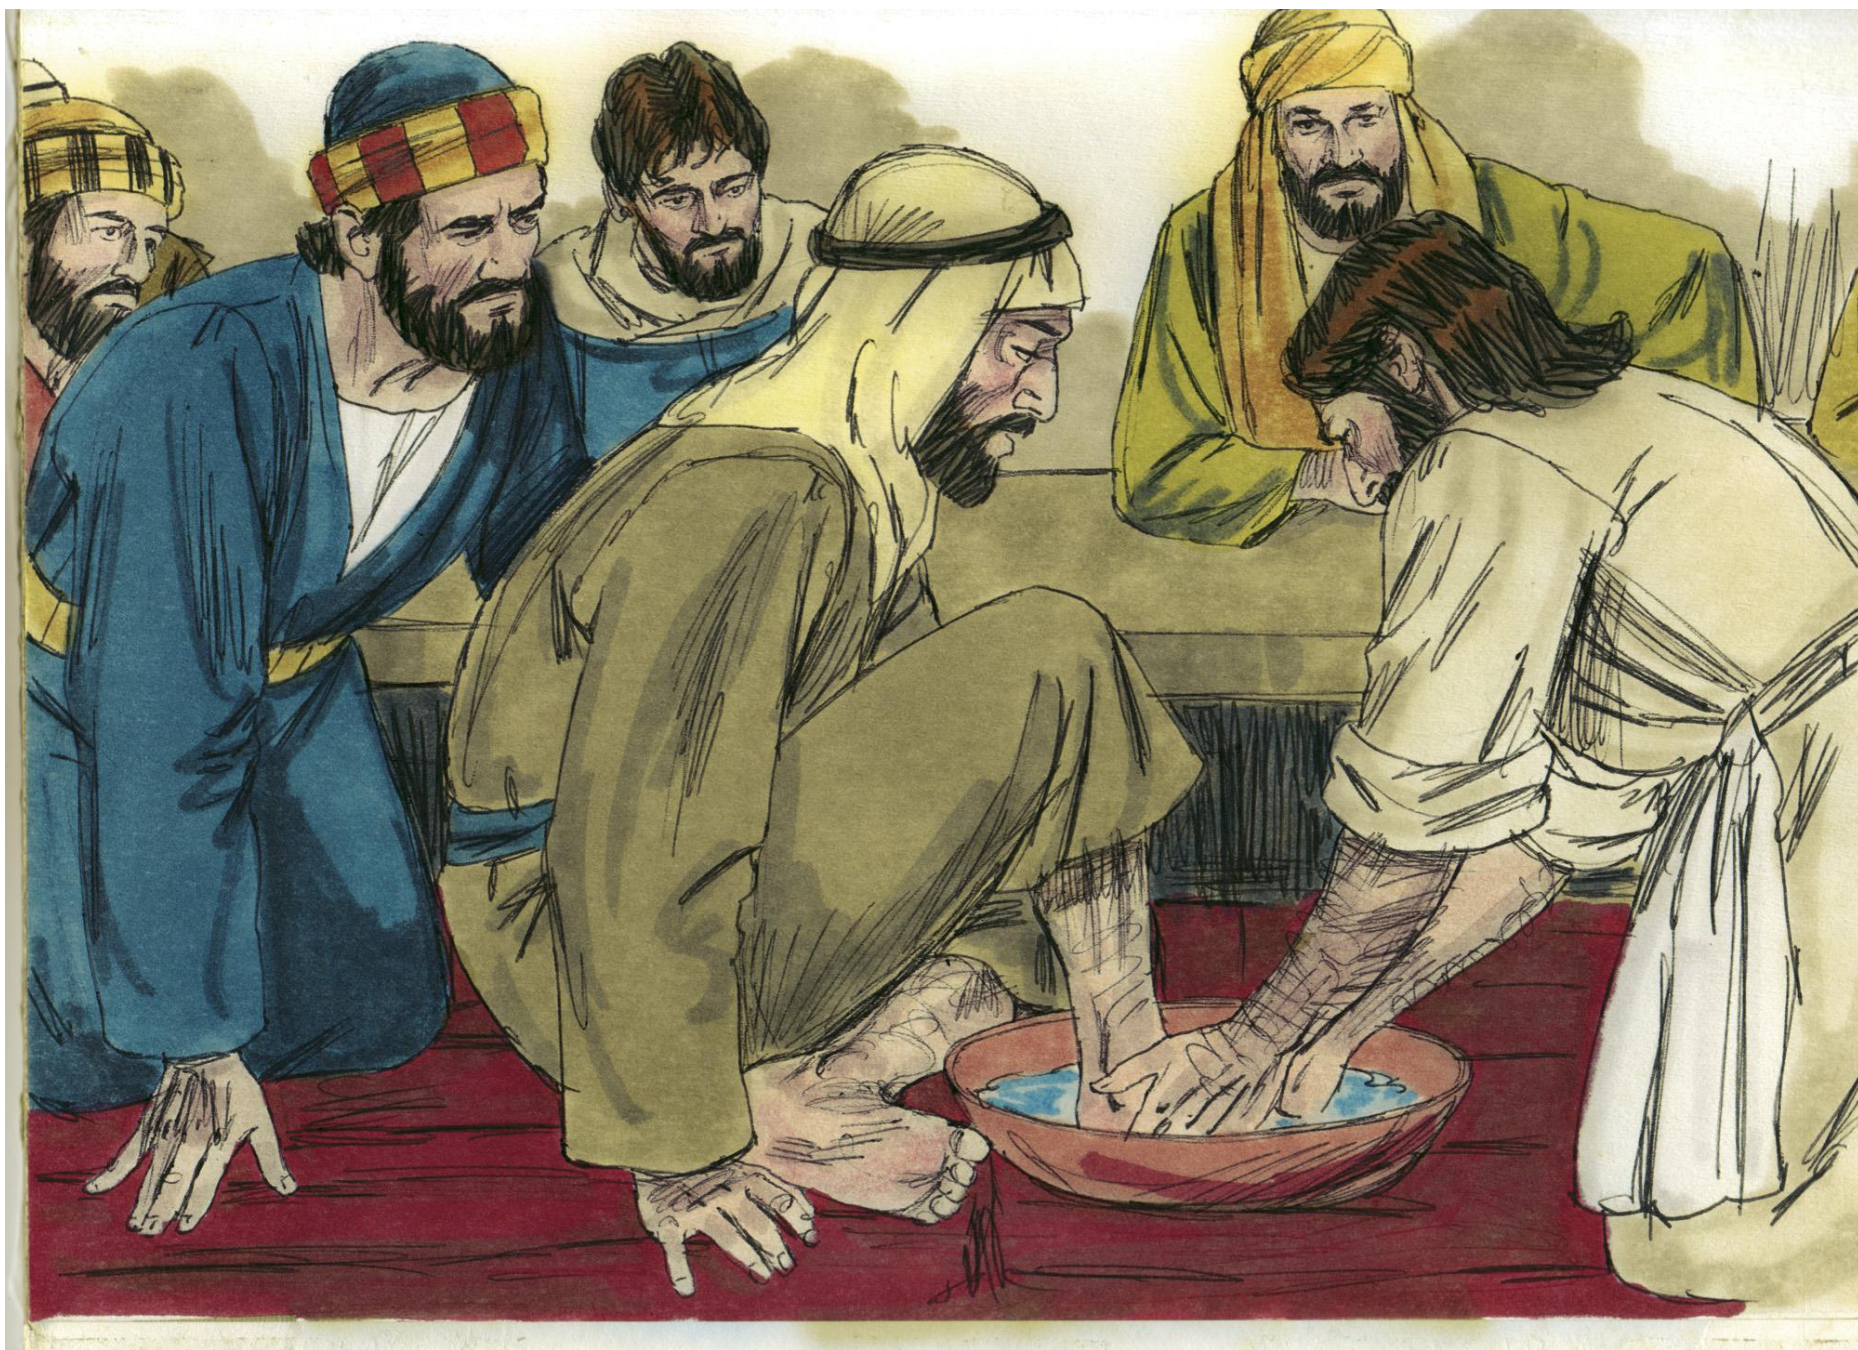

Jesus raised Jairus' daughter from the dead.

Jesus drew near to Jerusalem, riding on a donkey.
The crowd shouted, "Hosanna to the Son of David!"

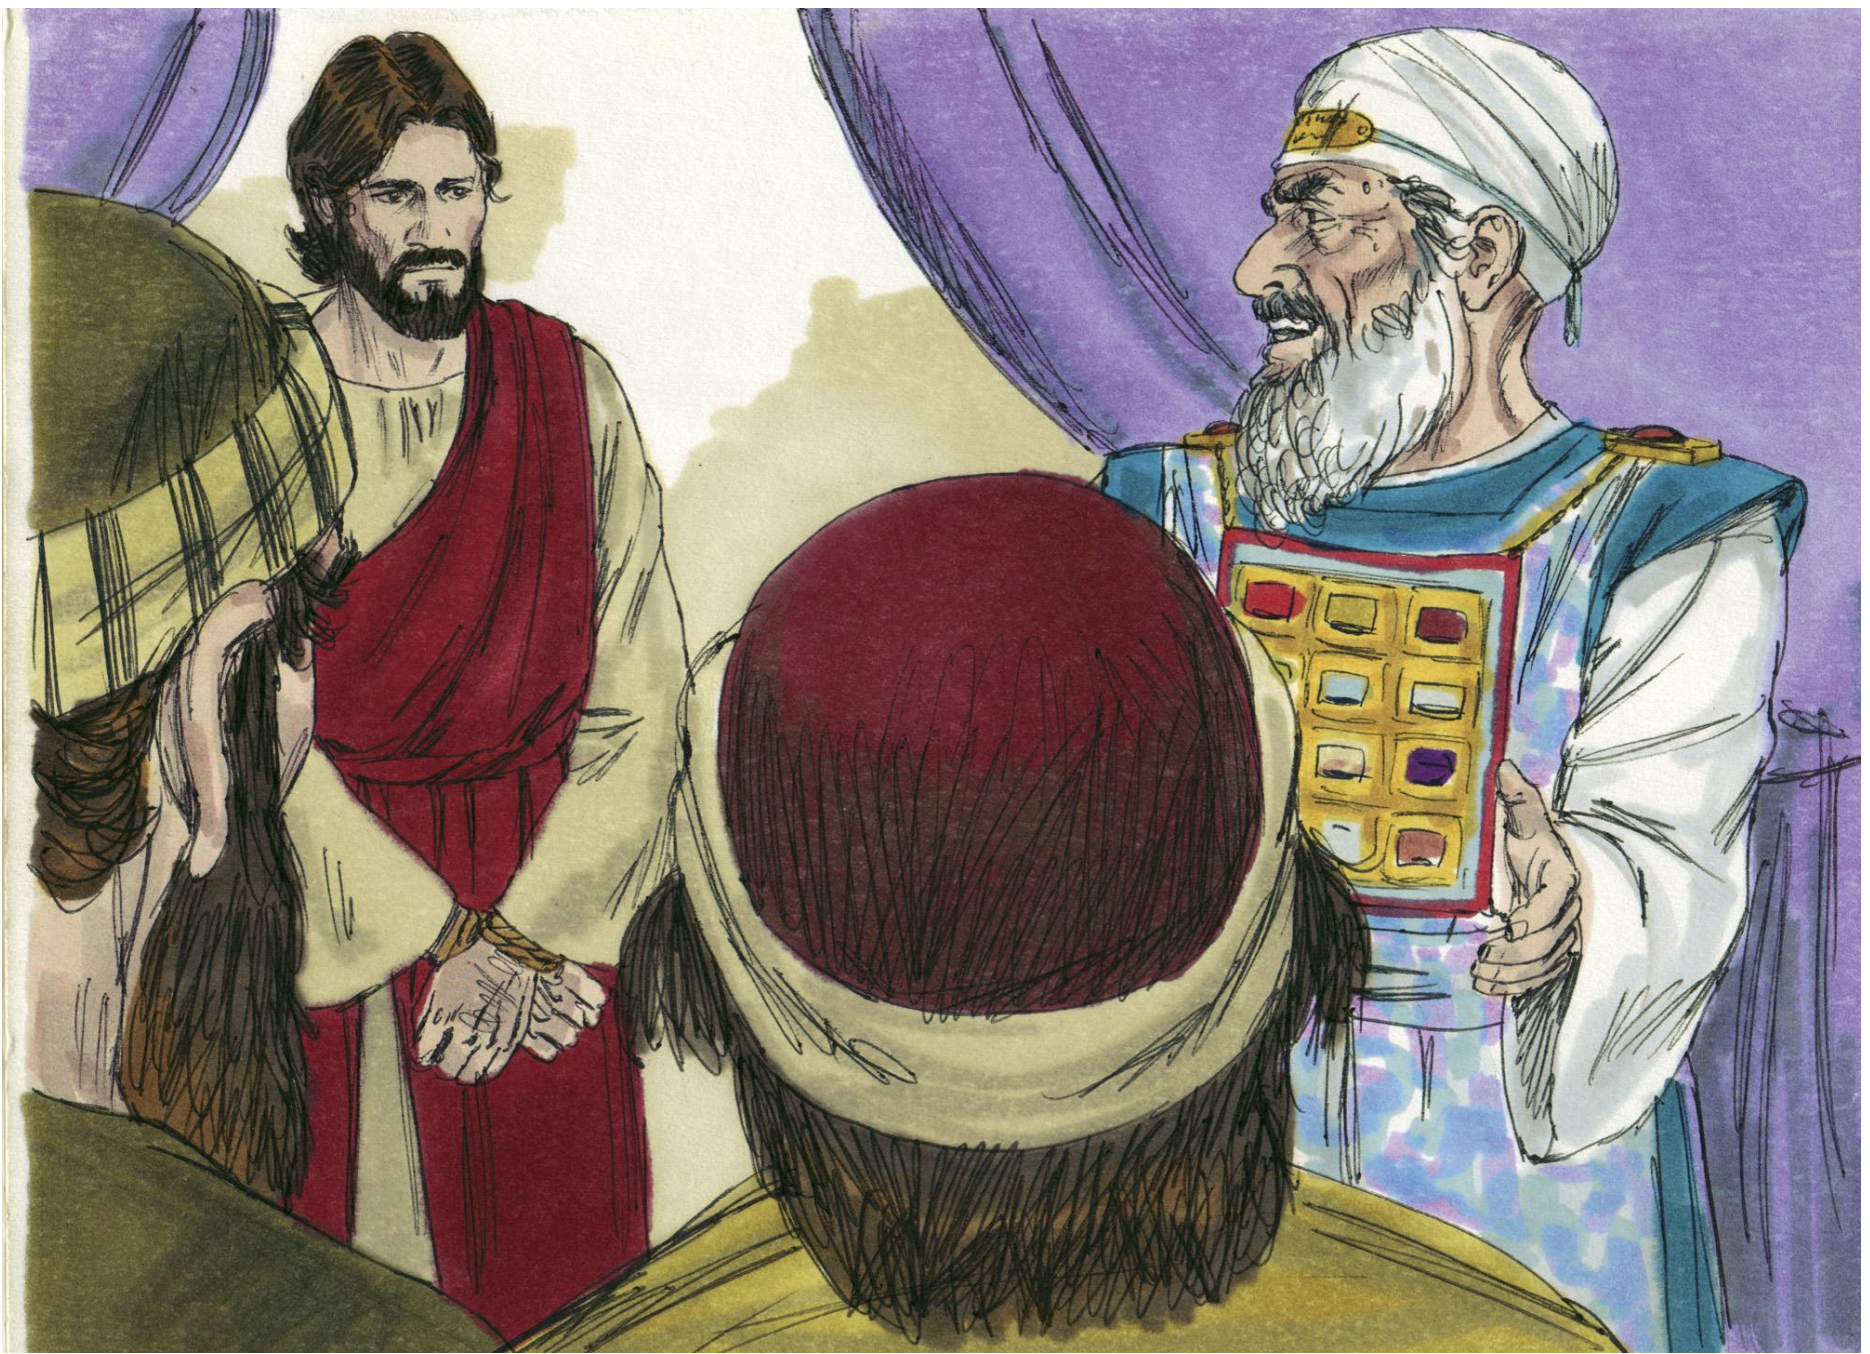

Jesus washed His disciples' feet and taught them they ought to wash one another's feet. A servant is not greater than his master.

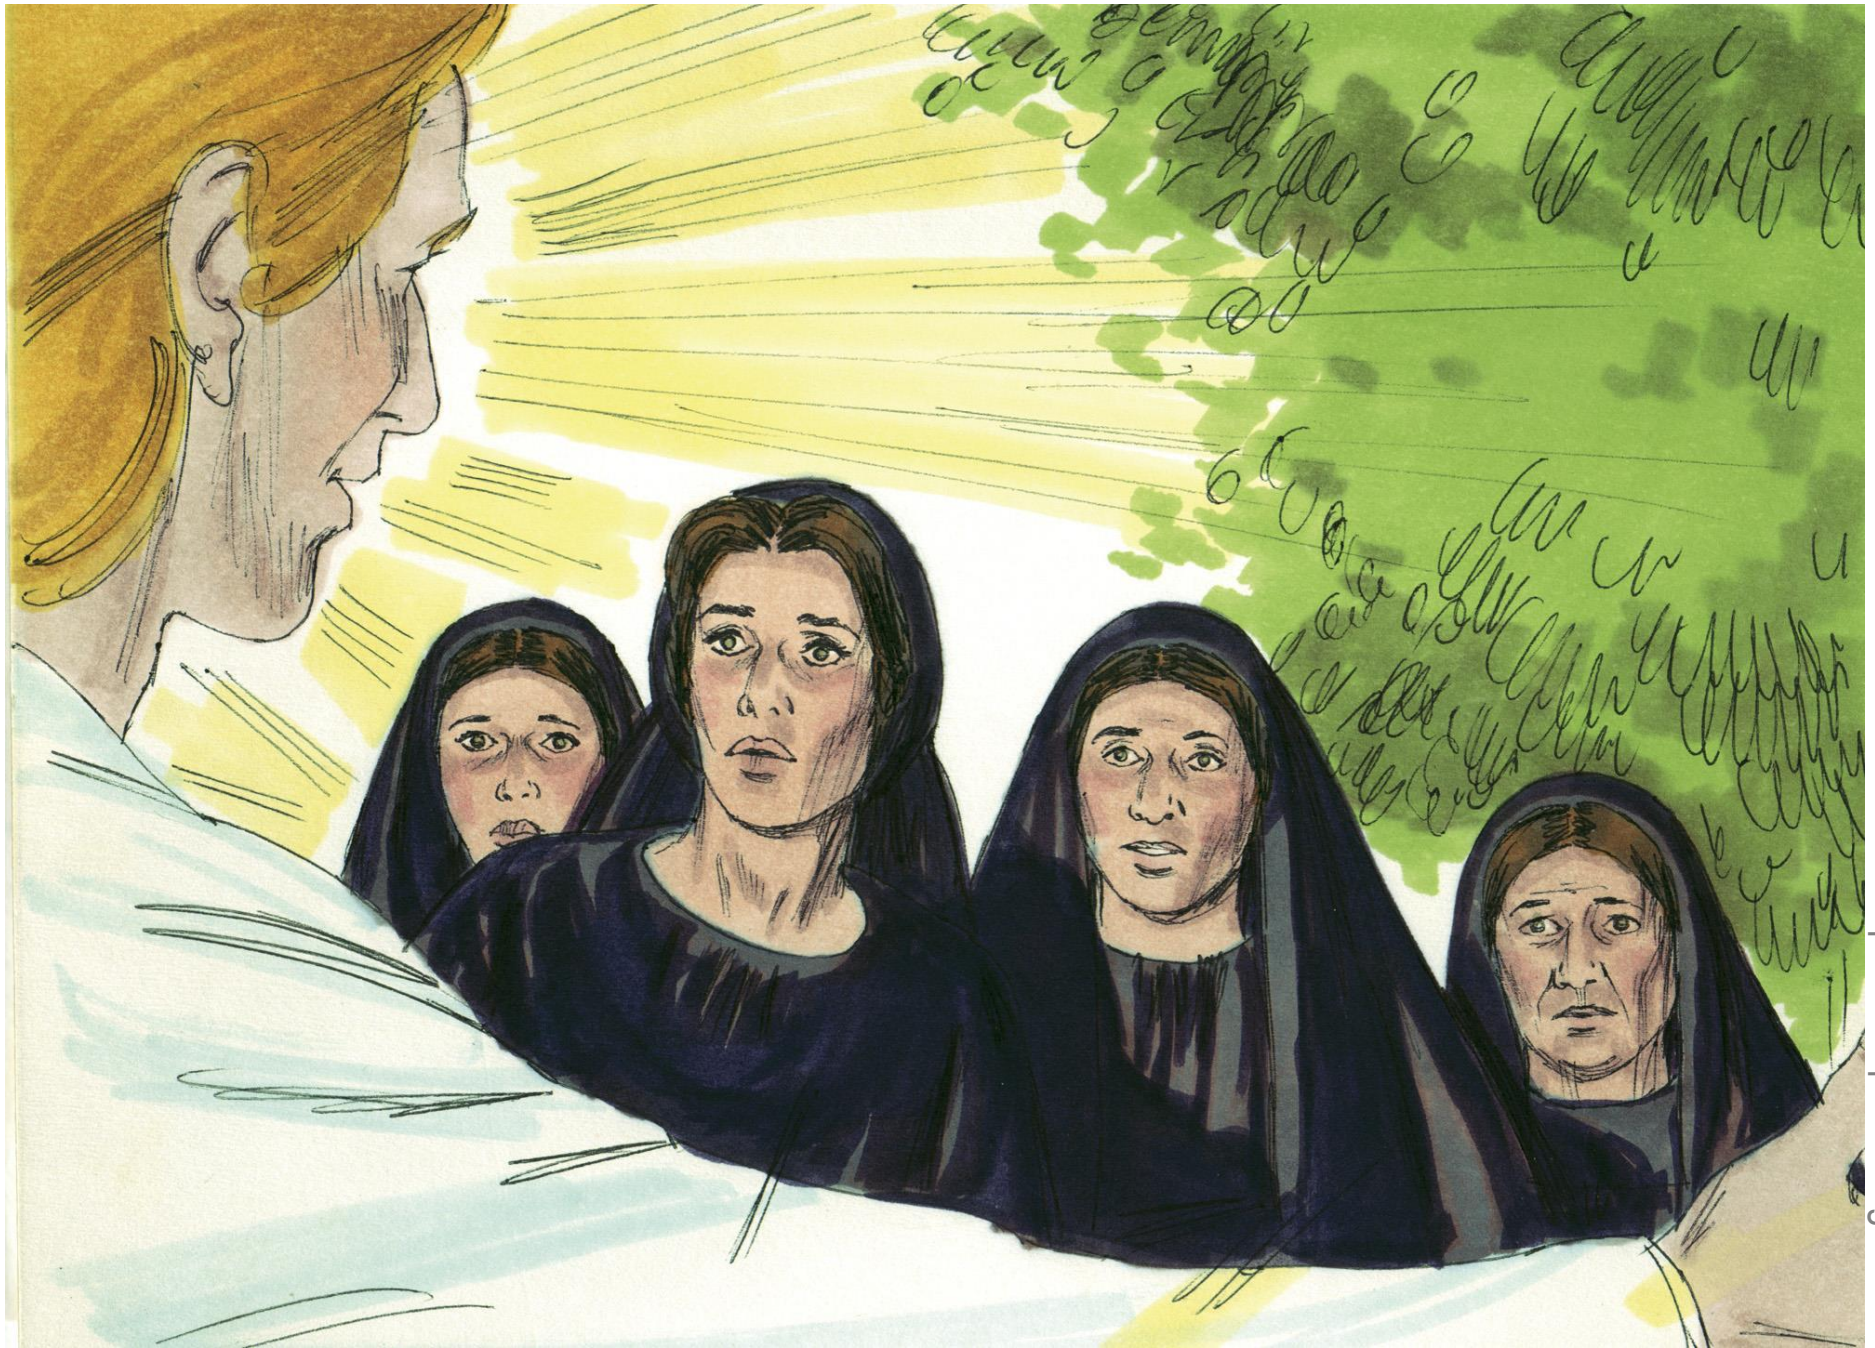

Jesus taught His apostles some important lessons on the night of their last supper before His crucifixion.

Pilate released Barabbas and scourged Jesus, then delivered Him to be crucified.

Jesus suffered and died a horrible death to pay for the sins of mankind.

As they were looking on, Jesus was lifted up to Heaven in a cloud.

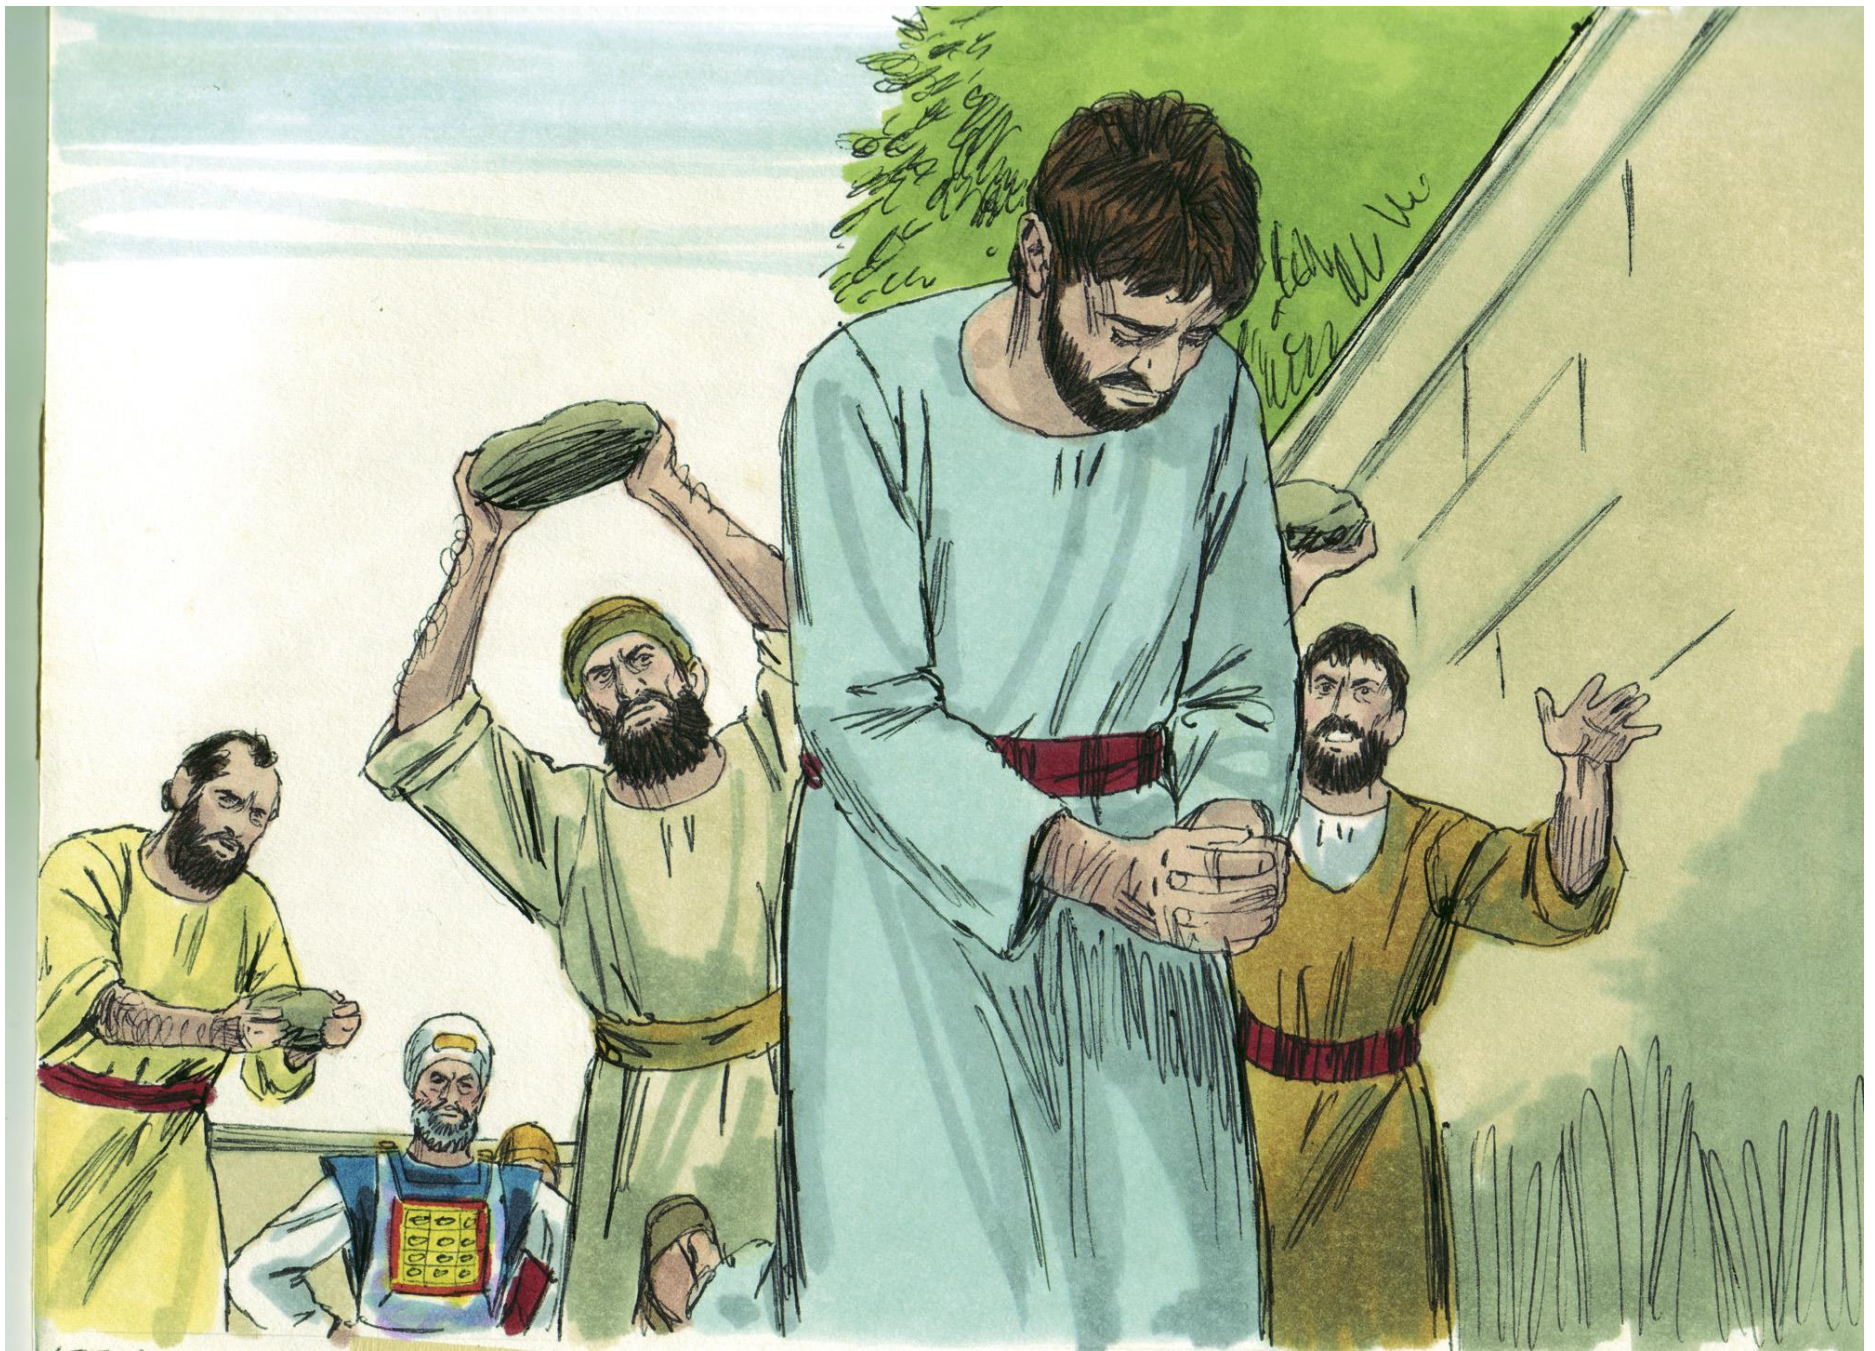

On the day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit came on the apostles and they began to speak in other tongues.

<http://sweetpublishing.com>

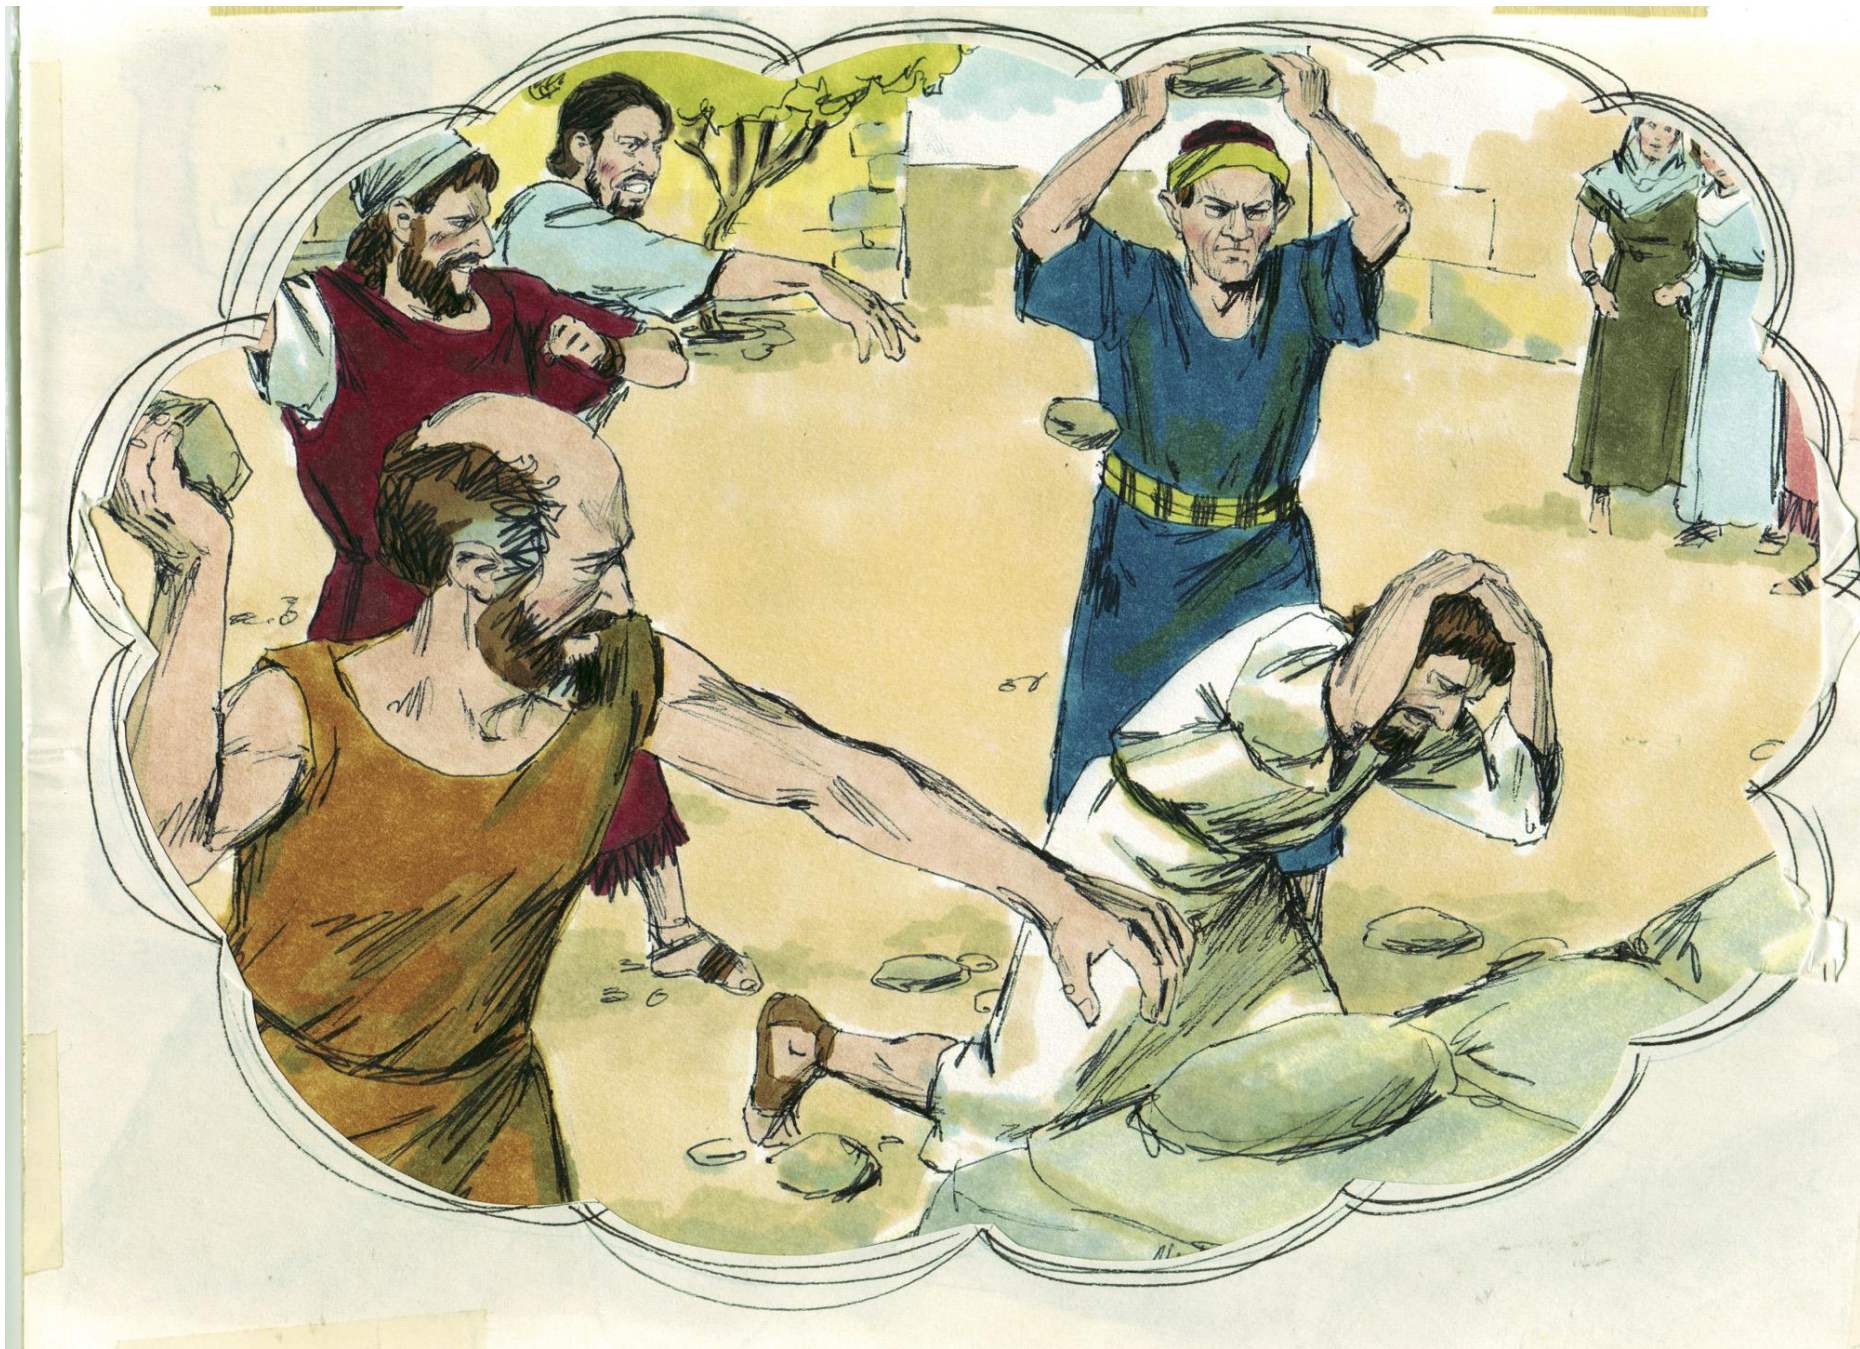

And Peter said to them, “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. “

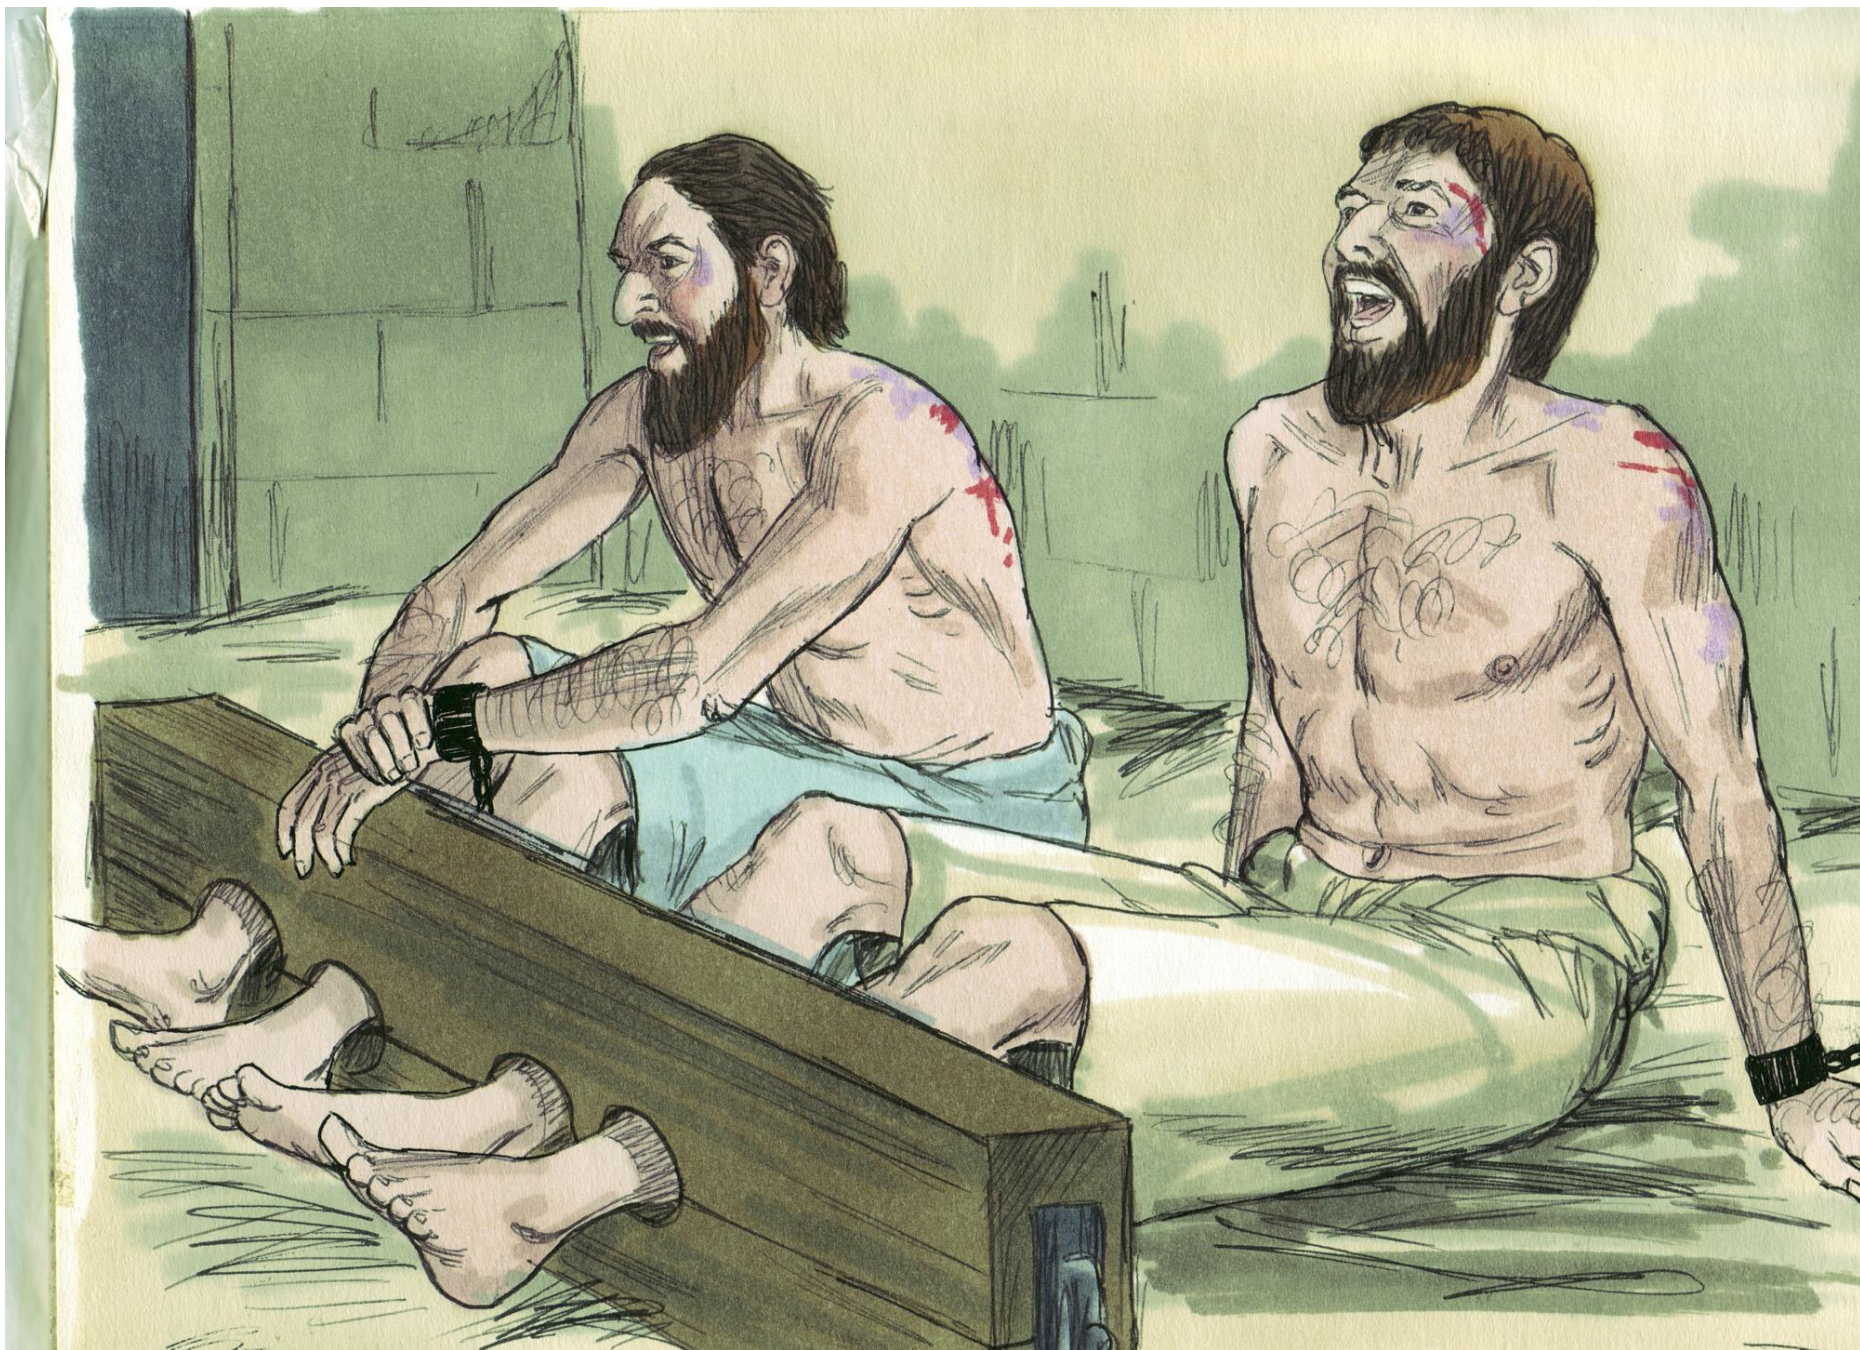

Stephen was a man full of wisdom. The elders and scribes stirred up the people, laid their garments down at the feet of Saul, and stoned Stephen.

On the way to Damascus to persecute disciples, a light from heaven flashed around Saul. He heard a voice saying, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"

Jews from Antioch and Iconium stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city.

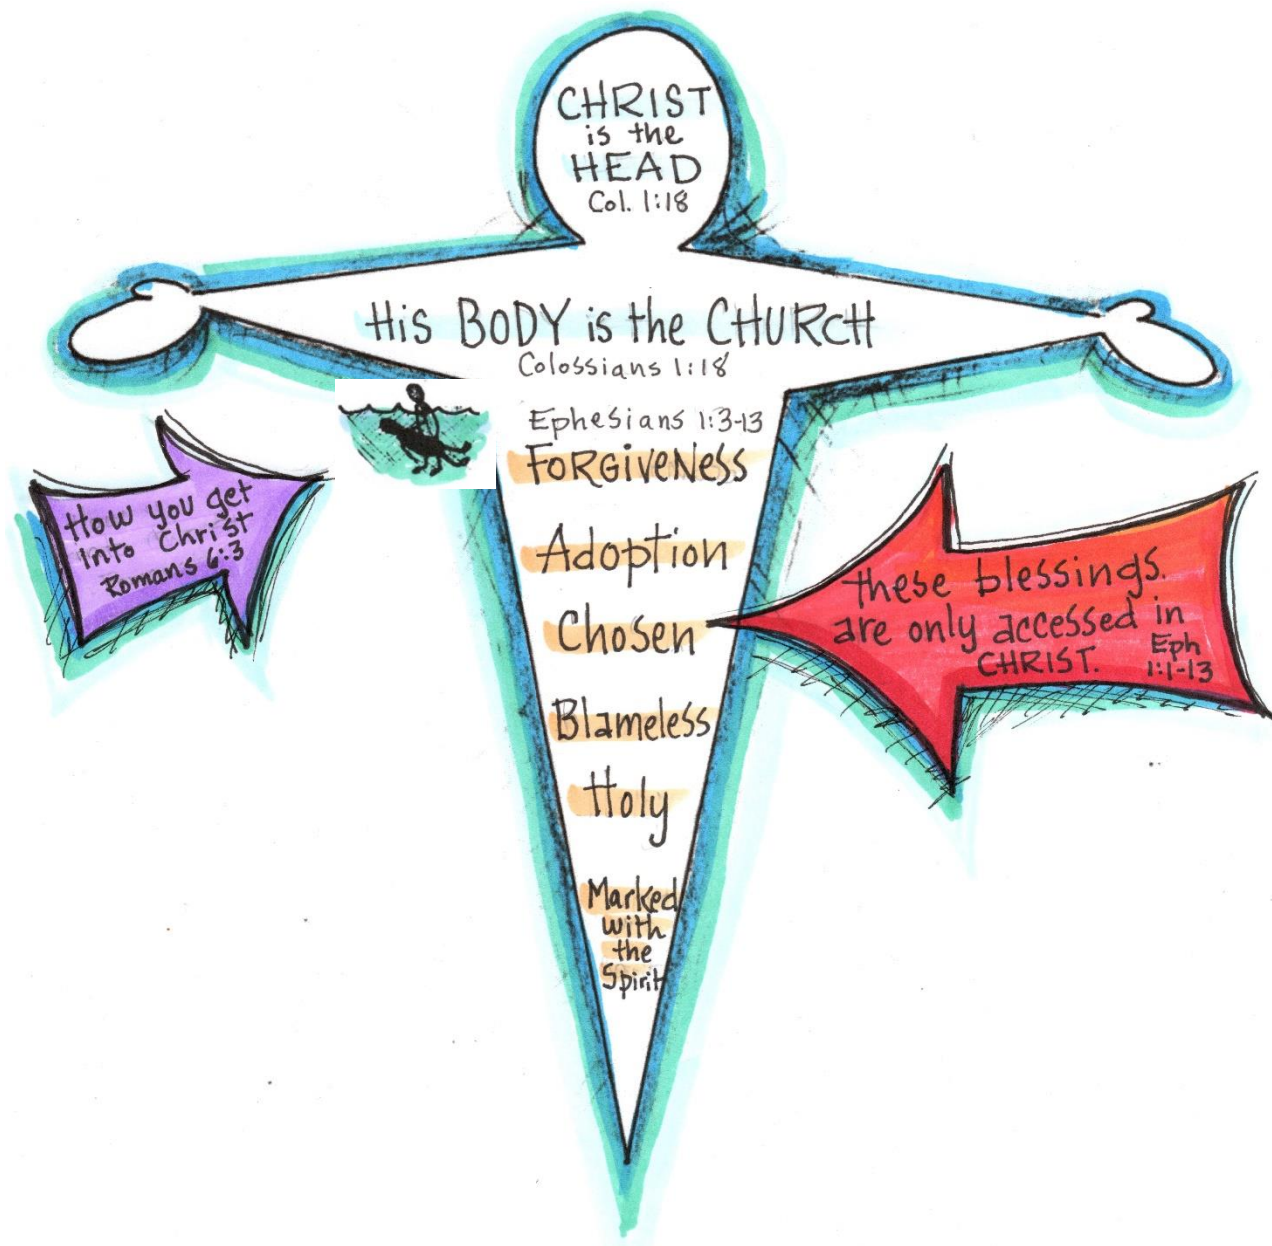

Paul and Silas were beaten and thrown into prison. While in prison, they were praying and singing, and the prisoners were listening.

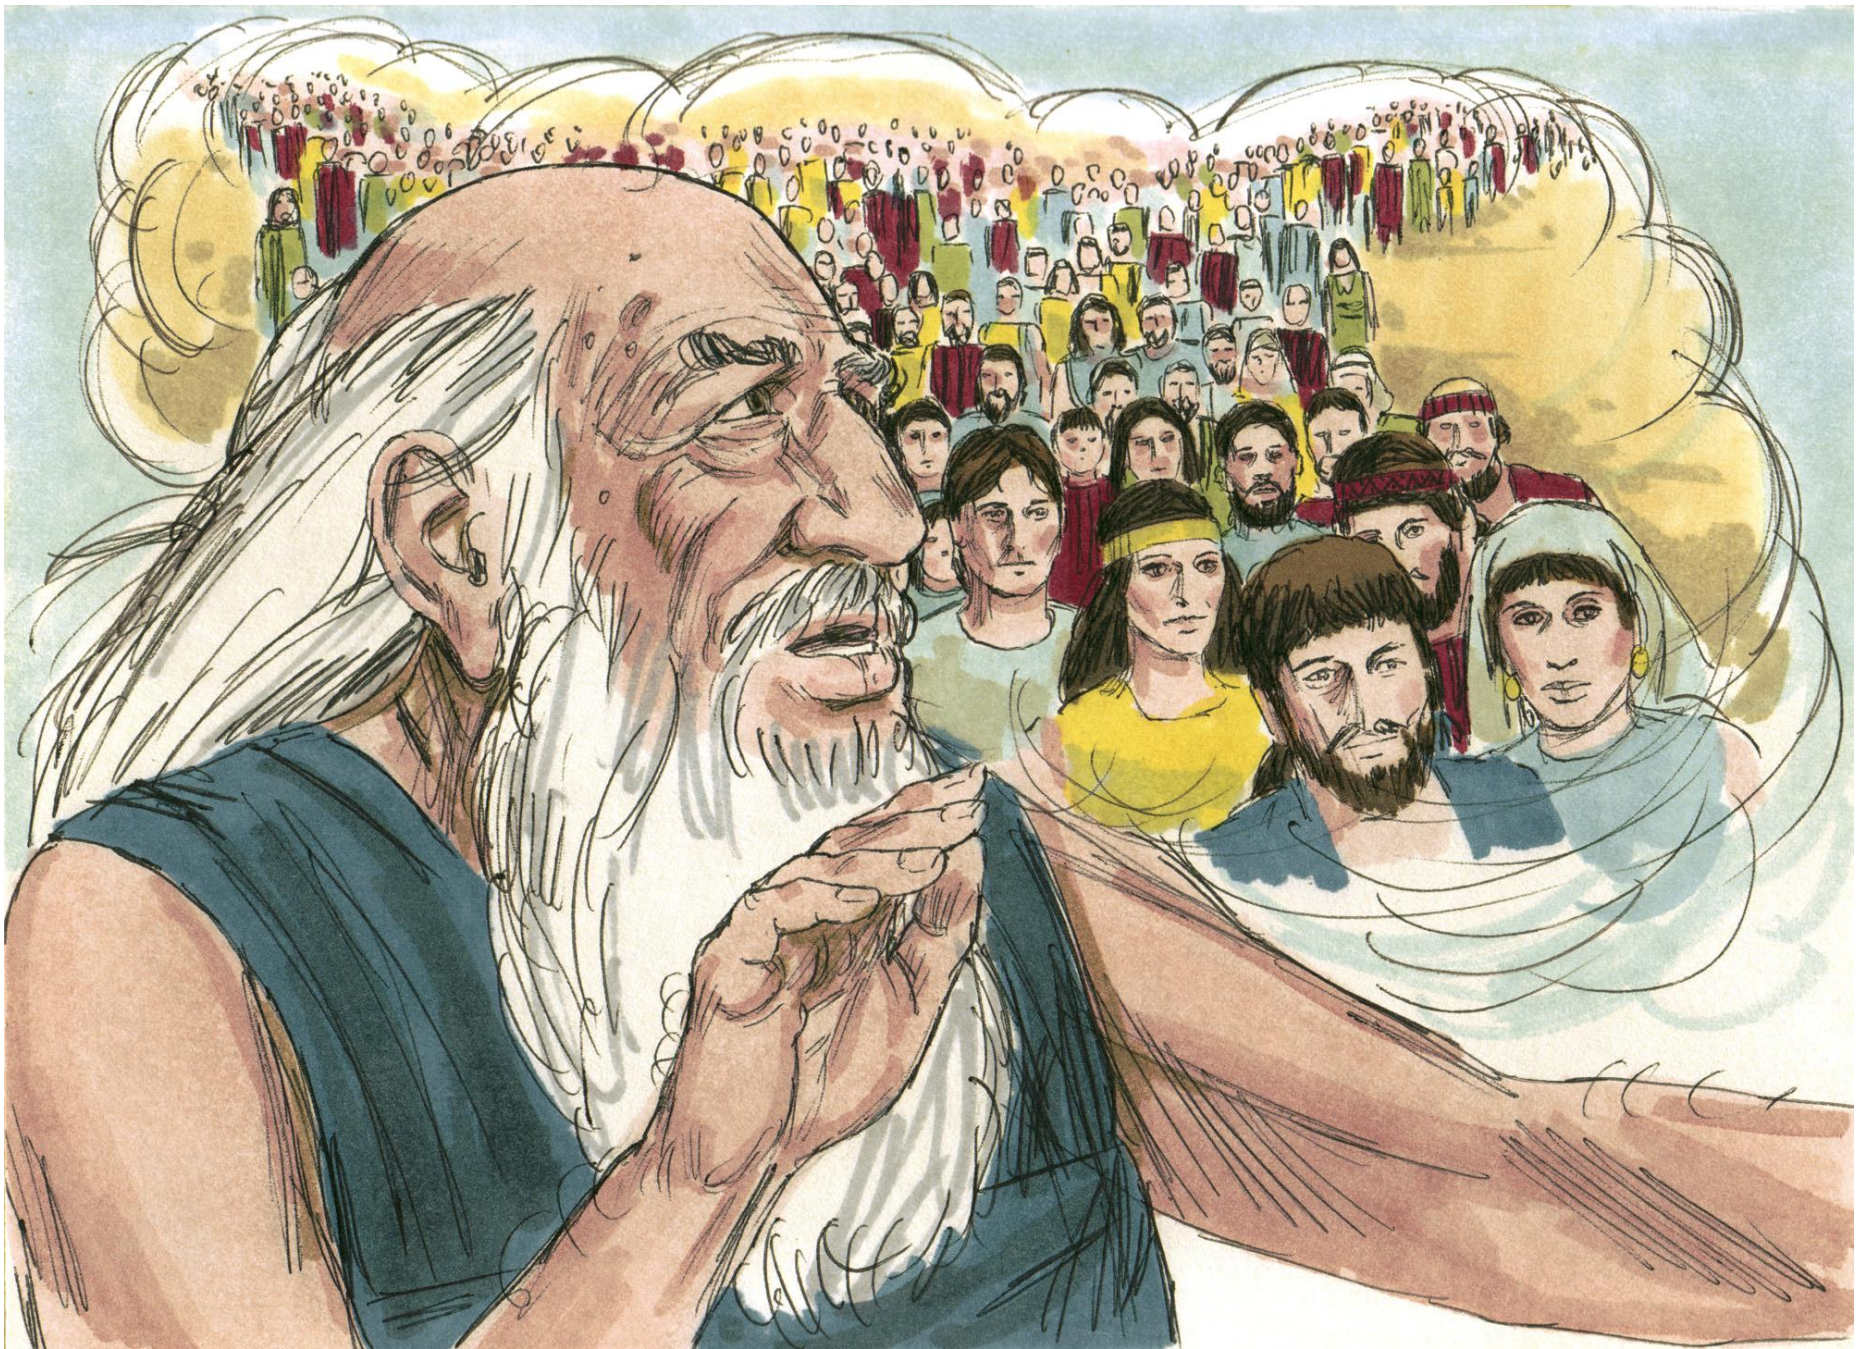

Paul, a prisoner, was on a ship sailing to Rome. They were caught in a terrible storm, where they were shipwrecked close to the island called Malta.

All spiritual blessings are in Christ. Ephesians 1:3

“Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?” Romans 6:3

God's promise to Abraham to bless all the nations of the world through him was fulfilled in His precious Son!

52a

The earth and everything in it will be burned up. So, what kind of people should you be?

52b

God wants EVERYONE to be saved! He has given us everything we need for salvation, but He does not force your obedience. It will have to be your free will. What will you choose?